Lauren Faust Joins Mane 6 Crew

- <http://www.equestriadaily.com/2013/03/lauren-faust-joins-mane-6.html>
- As many of you might know the fighting game, “My Little Pony Fighting is Magic” has received a C&D by Hasbro’s lawyers. The Mane 6 crew have stated that they were trying to get special permission from Hasbro to continue working on the game.

Unfortunately Hasbro has not given them the permission that they needed to keep the project running.

With every dark cloud there is a silver lining and the silver lining in this dark cloud is, Lauren Faust the creator of “Friendship is Magic” has join the Mane 6 crew. Her role in the crew will be that of “character concept and design”.

In a comment post that Norman Sanzo made he asked “The new characters will they be still ponies or something else?” and their reply was “They wont be related to the MLP franchise at all.”

In short this is going to be an entirely new project. The new project will not include ponies in anyway and will be something original created by Lauren Faust.

More Images Of Equestria Girls

- <http://www.equestriadaily.com/2013/03/new-equestria-girls-image-at-ny-times.html>
- In a recent New York Times article, they were discussing about Hasbro’s future and it’s various toy lines. In the article they talked about how the “My Little Pony brand” is turning 30 years old, and mention the brony fandom and stated that “To celebrate the brand’s 30th anniversary this year, the company plans to introduce a new extension this fall called Equestria Girls.”

Included in the article is a picture of the redesign Equestria Girls

E-Mail Time

In today's E-Mail Time:

- Dear Norman Sanzo , Sgt.pinkie awesome guests:What do you think about the Grimdark ponyfic in the mlp fandom i really like the grimdark stuff like movie's and book's but most brony's hate grimdark stuff and they call me a terrible person for liking horror stories. The fandom seems especially obsessed of making everything PG. Personally I've read some good stories that are Grimdark. They don't just focus on killing multiple-colored ponies, especially Rainbow dash Personally I think the pony fandom needs to be more open-minded. Just because in a story a pony dies does not mean it's going to be canon.

Best regards
Darkest Night

P.S i have a fanfic suggestion The Creature That Came to Ponyville by Friendly Uncle
Description: A new darkness has taken root in the Everfree Forest, and ponies are going missing. Does Fluttershy's new pet hold any answers? Or is Ponyville, and eventually all of Equestria, doomed ?
