What were your achievements today?

- Get super pump on the shoulders

Twilight review on the day:

- I stepped into wild unknown of creating mine social media. Next scary challenge that I don't know how to defit it. GREAT but I see that I have lack understanding of process. I don't know how to design great post. I don't know frequency of creating posts. I don't know how to write copy for that stuff. Tomorrow will spend one GWS to analyze successful students in Dylan's campus, ans ask some great questions about it.

The next problem I see is that for some reason I have problem reviewing, analyzing, especially my past day. How I sleep, wins, achievements EASY, but when it comes to my losses and deep review is like can't. Is like try to look baxk in my day, but I dont see almost anything. Its like feeling when you want to jump but you can't.

- Today wasn't super productive as I need. I see that the speed I am currently operating on daily basis is not enough. I am still running with issue of low speed on tasks. Tomorrow i am super focused to first do after coming back is to sit down for work

Wins:

- Trained super hard
- Spent good time with family

Losses:

- Wasn't operating with super speed and urgency to maximzie work time

- Ate bad tomato that caused weird issues with stomach that caused now focus on most critical tasks, and to keep up working I switched to lighter tasks
