

Subject: Social Science (X)

Chapter Federalism

Sure Shot Questions.

1. Explain the vertical division of power giving example from India
2. Explain democratic policies adopted by Government of India which made it a successful federation.
3. Compare the federations of coming together type and holding together type?
4. How are the legislative powers divided between the Union government and the State Governments?
5. Which five provisions of Indian Constitution make India a full-fledged federation?
6. Explain five changes towards decentralization brought in the Constitution after the amendments made in 1992.
7. The creation of linguistic states was the first and the major test of democratic politics in our country. Justify the statement.
8. Explain the threefold distribution of legislative powers between the Union Government and the State Governments.
9. Explain any four features of federalism.
10. What is the official post for the chairperson of a municipal corporation?

