

Definition: To provide and ensure affordable and clean energy to everyone in society. Improve the quality of life for every individual on Earth.

Questions/Quiz:

What are some of the reasons people do not have affordable and clean energy?

Feelings: How does a person feel without affordable and clean energy?

Needs: What are the needs to provide someone with affordable and clean energy?

Superhero Identifier: Who are the superheroes in your community working to provide affordable and clean energy?

Diary/journal: Share your thoughts on this subject and how you feel.

Mission I'm Possible:
Affordable and Clean Energy

Write your answers and thoughts below as you progress through the labyrinth, for each level.

Rounds: person/family/community

1) What are the tools you use to attain and maintain affordable and clean energy in your life?

2) How does your family attain and maintain affordable and clean energy in their lives?

3) How does your community help residents attain and maintain affordable and clean energy?

Activities:

1) Identify your skills and abilities to help attain and maintain affordable and clean energy. How often do you practice these?

2) Identify your family's skills and resources to attain and maintain affordable and clean energy for everyone. How do/will you provide your personal skills and abilities to this goal?

3) What are the character strengths and virtues you use when attaining an maintaining affordable and clean energy?

Challenge:

- Will you visit your local utility offices, discovering what your community needs to attain and maintain affordable and clean energy?
- What are your representatives doing to achieve and maintain affordable and clean energy?
- Please share some of your experiences with others in your community and/or in your journal.

