

Hi Pierre, this part of the sales page rewrite is for you.

I hope you'll enjoy it, so, let's start :)

Lock-in your prices before they increase.

Hundreds of people already saw the results and are with a dream body.

Transformations they couldn't imagine.

By following my plan and discipline you can't avoid perfect aesthetic, performance & strength.

Lock in your price before it goes up, don't miss out this chance.

There are people who look good and who make excuses.

A few words from me about this writing.

I know it sounds a little more aggressive, but I don't think it's excessive. Your opinion will definitely depend on how confident you are in your program. Because I am, I wrote in that style.

You have every right not to like it, but I'd like to hear your reaction. Feel free to email.
