Thank you for attending the Survivor Solidarity March, a collaboration between Amnesty International UIUC, IGNITE, and It's On Us. Please take a look at this document to find a list of chants, the route for the day, a form for information on an open letter, and some rally tips and guidelines.

CHANTS

= The PEOPLE's lines

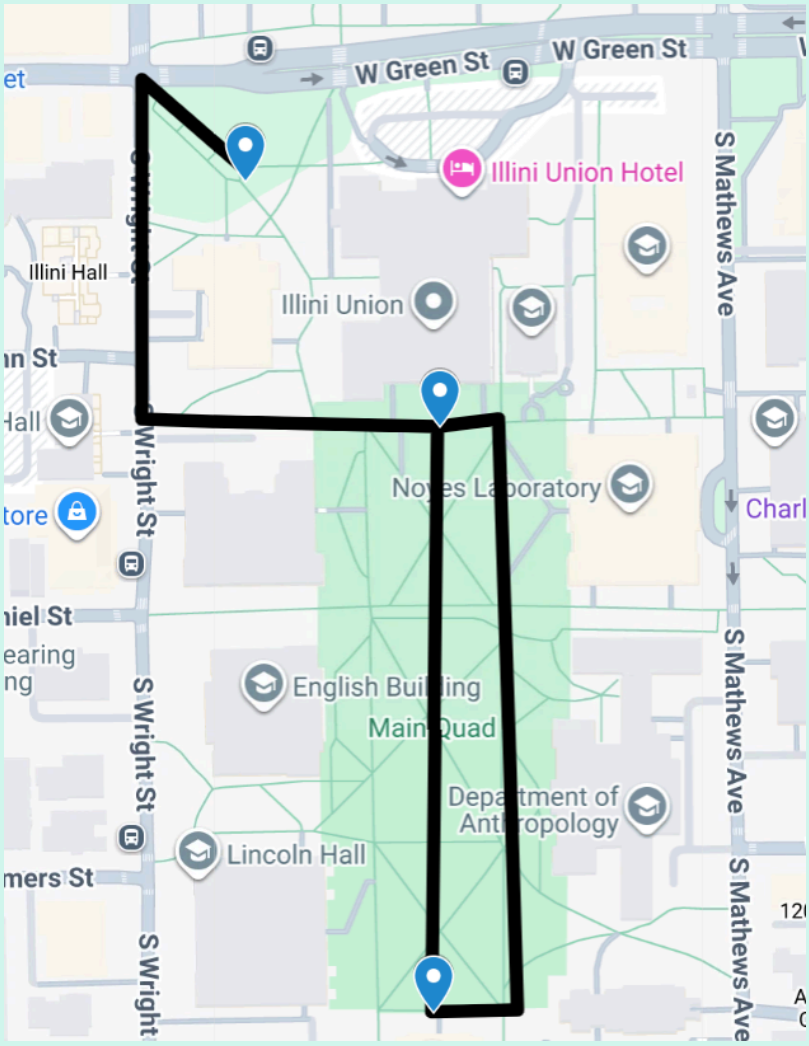

BOLD = Chant leaders lines

1. What do we want, justice,
   When do we want it, now
2. Stop the violence, no more silence
3. No justice, no peace
4. Justice for every Jane Doe,
   all these rapists have got to go
5. Hey, hey, ho, ho,
   The patriarchy has got to go
6. Whose campus, our campus,
   Whose streets, our streets
7. Rape, Torture, Exploitation,
   Won't stop women's liberation

ROUTE

1. Start at Alma Mater at 12pm → first speaker
2. Walk south down Wright street toward the Quad, stand on the grassy area in front of the Union → next speaker
3. Walk down to Foellinger, stand on the grassy area out front → last speaker

4. Walk back to Alma and disperse from there at around 1pm

GOOGLE FORM

The work to get justice for survivors and prevent sexual violence on campus doesn't end with the Survivor Solidarity March today. Amnesty International UIUC and IGNITE are working on an open letter to send to the university and its stakeholders demanding protection for students on campus, and we want to know what you think!

Please note that no personal information will be shared.

GUIDELINES

Bring your water bottle and stay hydrated!

Dress in weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable shoes. You can wear a face mask if you are worried about being identified.

Don't block anyone from entering any buildings.

Do not antagonize or engage in physical altercations with others.

Please do not destroy property.

Please clean up after yourself including not leaving signs or papers at the places we marched through!

Be respectful of your fellow protesters.

Check out the campus expressive action policies and consult guides from orgs like the ACLU to know what your rights as a student protester are.

If at any point you are worried about safety or other concerns arise, find a safety officer or organizer.

For survivors: your mental and physical health comes first. have a self-care plan for before/after the rally, and please step away if you need to. We are here to support you and happy to help however we can!
