Independent RP blog. 18+ only. Private. Selective. Written by Al (as in AL, not ai!).

run info

hey! you can call me al! i'm twenty-seven, white, agender (they/them) and a lesbian. you can find me on tildeaths, sort of! i used to be poorfaked/shamedsaints. you can also find me lovetraded.

something else you should know! i am (possibly?) autistic/have OCD. this makes communication incredibly difficult for me. in recent years i've gotten a lot better at reaching out, but i still struggle with keeping up conversations. i apologize if i seem standoffish or like i'm overthinking things. it's because i am definitely overthinking things.

rules

SELECTIVITY

i'm selective and private. but! if you have an idea for our characters and we're not mutuals, message me and we can see if it'd work! i'm willing to try! this is a given, but i will not interact/follow if you are racist, sexist, homophobic, transphobic, xenophobic, zionist, etc. i will unfollow at will or if i hear that you've been shitty/abusive. this is of course mutual; if for any reason you no longer want to follow me, that's completely okay! i just ask that you softblock/hardblock, either one.

also, please don't follow if you're under 18! i will be blocking you if you don't have your age/something saying you're of age on your blog. if i find out you're lying, i will block you. thank you!

INTERACTING

i'm p chill tbh. i don't have many things i don't want you to do besides don't godmod. i also love becoming friends with my roleplay partners! i actually prefer it, but if you're not interested in becoming friends we absolutely do not have to. this is just my way of saying you're free to hit me up for my discord if we're mutuals!

ORIGINAL CHARACTERS/CANONS

i am extremely open to original characters and all fandoms! if i don't know the fandom you're in, it's not a big deal – i can do some research and i'll get to know your portrayal through interaction.

CISBENT/GENDERBENT: i am a trans person (trans masc/agender), so my feelings on these types of characters are mixed. i am not particularly bothered by them most of the time, and have written them! but sometimes, i do find them to have weird implications. basically, for me, it's a case-by-case thing.

SHIPPING

i'm very open to shipping! i love shipping. like. you can just ask me to ship and i'll hop on that.

SMUT

i am twenty seven years old, so smut can happen! i will not write nsfw with anyone underage. please do not lie to me. all smut takes place over 18. 1/26/22: i am only comfortable writing smut with people i already know.

TAGGING

i tag pretty much everything. i am extremely, extremely organized. it's almost a problem. if you need me to tag something, i will most definitely do it. i won't judge your triggers. if you need, like, apples tagged for whatever reason, no prob. if you have a specific tag you want me to use, please tell me.

REPLIES

i generally reply pretty quickly, but also, i can be sort of lazy. one-liners come quicker than paras, because i like to take my time with paras. of course, this just depends on the thread. please don't push me to reply, but if you feel as if maybe i missed your reply or ask or anything, message me and ask. please remember that i'm allowed to drop threads, but that doesn't mean i don't want to roleplay with you. if i drop your thread, hit me up and we can plan something new.

1/17/22: i have OCD/anxiety and can sometimes experience intense episodes where i am unable to do anything other than ruminate. social media can trigger my compulsions, so sometimes i have to take breaks. this will impact my activity as well.

PLOTTING

if you want to plot with me, just message me! i really love angst, drama, and romance. i also like adventure. i pretty much like everything lmao. the only thing i won't roleplay is cheating plots – i hate them and they make me extremely uncomfortable. this blog does not do bigoted plotlines, ie slavery plots. i do not write pedophilia, bestiality, etc. charlie's story contains mentions of suicide, and they will be talked about. please follow with caution!
