Monday, 9/29 AM

From September 15th - October 15th, we celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month. Thank you to Señor Villa's Heritage Spanish class for researching and making the slides for the announcements! Today we'll learn about Bolivia.

The capital of Bolivia is Sucre. There you could taste traditional salteñas, which are Bolivian-style empanadas. Juan Evo Morales Ayma is one of the most famous Bolivians. He is an activist and served as the president of Bolivia for many years.

One thing not to miss in Bolivia is the Salar de Uyuni, the world's largest salt flat. It is vast and desolate - some of the only wildlife you might encounter are cacti and ... pink flamingos! The salt flat was the location used for the Planet Crait in Star Wars: The Last Jedi.

The cross country team continued their undefeated season with wins over Pleasantdale, Willow Springs, and George Washington on Thursday.

The overall top 5 finishers for the girls were all Park runners. Lightning Lucy Fletcher came in first place, followed by Katherine Kickstarts Kowalczyk in 2nd, Abigail the Accelerator Fauth in 3rd, Aaliyah Pronto Pipes in 4th, and Eleanor the Bullet Bartholomai in 5th.

The boys were led by Oliver Overdrive Ursetta with a time of 11:04, followed by Charlie The Missile Mullen in 3rd, Jackrabbit Jack Baker in 5th, and the 6-7 combo of Harlem The Hitman Cisneros and Turbo Trey Davidson.

The next meet is Thursday at Springrock Park against McClure and Highlands.

Want to make a difference while you're here at Park?Do you want to earn Service hours?

Come to our Service Club informative meeting and project on Tuesday September 30th and hear what it's all about. 3:30 to 4:10. In room 302.

It is a start in being a leader for life!!!!! Encourage a friend to come along with you.
