Q: 乌贼老师，有个关于神奇物品的问题想要请教，感谢回答。 1.卢米安的拷打拳套承受序列四的攻击毁坏之后，幸运儿特性重新析出。 这是否意味着，那些位格没那么高，特点不那么坚固的2级，3级神奇物品遭到有效攻击，毁坏之后便会析出其对应的非凡特性，并不是和粉碎非凡特性一样有着类似拥有神性、拥有天使位格等刚需性要求？ 2.毁坏0级和1级神奇物品，使其析出对应的非凡特性时，是否会比毁坏2级，3级有着更多的限制条件，比如：拥有神性？ 3.单纯破坏神奇物品析出的非凡特性，和经由天使粉碎析出的非凡特性，除了去除污染和削弱精神烙印隐患之外，是否还有本质、深层性的区别？	Q: Mr. Cuttlefish, I have a question about mystical items and would appreciate your answer. Thank you! 1. After Lumian's "Flog Boxing Glove" was destroyed by a Sequence 4 attack, the "Lucky One" characteristic recondensed. Does this mean that lower-tier Grade 2 or Grade 3 mystical items (which are less durable) will also release their corresponding beyonder characteristics if effectively attacked and destroyed, without requiring conditions like "possessing godhood" or "angel-level status" (as needed for shattering beyonder characteristics)? 2. Aside from removing contamination and reducing the risk of mental imprints, is there any fundamental or deep-level difference between extraordinary characteristics released by simply destroying a mystical item and those released by an angel shattering them? CF: 1. It is equivalent to the vessel being destroyed while the essence remains unchanged. Simply put, if this is a mixed characteristic, destroying the vessel will still yield a mixed characteristic upon release. However, if shattered by an angel, the characteristics will separate and become pure.

I suddenly had an idea about the Spectator pathway's ritual. In Lord of the Mysteries, it was mentioned that the Spectator's ritual is relatively simple because Spectators inherently possess placate abilities, allowing many aspects to be simplified. Following this logic, could the Spectator pathway be a trap for pathway switching? Other adjacent pathways lack innate self-placate abilities. 利用前者进行短距频繁传送所实现的闪现效果（比如克莱恩使用蠕动的饥饿时的用法，抓那个赢家秘偶时用过）和做为一种单独能力的后者的“闪现”，两者的区别和各自优势是什么呢（比如极光会k先生放牧时选择能力既选了“旅行”又选了“闪现”，想来应该各有其应用场景）？是类似猎人的“火鸦术”之于“控火能力”那样的特化咒文吗？

I still have a question about the Door pathway abilities "Traveler's Gate (Travel/Teleportation)" and "Blink": What are the differences and respective advantages between using the former for short-distance frequent teleportation to achieve a blink-like effect (e.g., Klein's use of Creeping Hunger when capturing the Winner marionette) and the latter as a standalone "Blink" ability? (For instance, Mr. K of the Aurora Order chose both "Travel" and "Blink" when grazing abilities, suggesting each has its applications.) Is it similar to specialized incantations like the Hunter's "Fire Raven Technique" versus "Fire Control Ability"? CF: "Blink" involves positioning and usage within a specific area of the spirit world, while "Teleportation" applies to the entire spirit world. Q3: Did Lumian make some settings to default grant authority to Franca? Because, in the day before achieving balance, he could only be awake for one hour. It would be inconvenient if he had to be awake to grant it. A2: But the team members would be unable to bear it and become disposable. Only Franca, who possesses the Queen symbolism of the Calamity of Destruction, can truly bear. A3: Queen symbolism. Q4: Ludwig is also considered a godson. Can he obtain the Prince symbolism in the future? A4: Difficult, because the Calamity of Destruction is androgynous, so symbols like Queen and Consort fall within its scope.

Was this information revealed to her by the Evernight Goddess, who has some degree of control over the sefirah? (Because knowledge related to sefirot should be very high-level and secret, right? The Tarot Club probably wasn't capable of researching such knowledge at the time.) Why did she build her church in Trier after the apocalypse, instead of her hometown Backlund? Was it because William Augustus felt threatened by the unity of the three angels and ordered Audrey to leave?

But in reality, once we set foot on this path, we inevitably head towards the non-human or human-like-but-not-quite direction: Gods have a soul but no physical form, can receive worship and offerings from all beings, and fade from the world if forgotten; Immortals have both soul and form, but can dine on wind and dew and are ever-changing; Demons are stubborn, obsessive, indulge desires, and though seemingly human, lack a true nature; Buddhas are beings of freedom and liberation, with hearts unburdened, though compassionate towards all beings, they are not attached to appearances; Cultivators all seek a flawless body, taking in without leaking out, pure and clear not turbid, lofty and pure abandoning filth, viewing all living beings as sustenance... None of these are the fundamental two opposites of what makes a person human. A: Yes. Q2: A natural Sequence 2, but Katarina said that during the Pale Disaster period, Azik was a Sequence 4 Undying. So, does this mean that a natural Beyonder with characteristics does not necessarily correspond to that level of strength and needs to grow or digest? A2: He was able to participate in the Four Emperors' War and was stunned by Tudor's glare. If he had only been a Undying at that time, how likely would it have been that he truly remained undead? The fact that he later became Sequence 4 was, of course, because of issues from this incident. Q3: But this is what the Demoness of White said at the time: "I remember that it only happens for your pathway during the Undying stage. Dying once every sixty years to revive again and forget the past. However, you have long advanced past that and escaped from that curse." There was an advancement, so did the problem caused by that glance cause a drop in sequence? A3: Conquest. The Beyonder characteristics rebelled. If it weren't for the fact that the high sequences of the Death pathway are similarly dominant over the lower sequences, Azik would have already become Tudor's loyal soldier. Q4: So, did he lose all his characteristics, or were the high-sequence characteristics and some low-sequence characteristics randomly conquered, and then timely intercepted by Salinger? A4: A complete set of characteristics was lost. Only the extra parts remained.
