

Interlude:

Cell laughs as he releases a giant Kamehameha attack at Neo Metal Sonic, but before the metal copy can react, the screen greys out as the Ringmaster shouts...

FIGHT!

The screen then statics into playing the Action Battle intro.

Charles: Cell vs Metal Sonic!

Remarkable-Emu: Dragon Ball's perfect being against the ultimate overlord! He's Charles, and i'm Remarkable-Emu.

Charles: And it's our job to analyze their weapons, armor, and skills to find out who would win... an Action Battle.

Cell is Truly a Perfect Saiyan! He even has his own game show!

Charles: Meet Doctor Gero. He's the mastermind between the cool Android 17, the hot Android 18, and the gentle Android 16!

Remarkable-Emu: But then, Gero decided it would be a fun idea to use the power of "Cell Recombination" using the genetics of the greatest fighters that his little mech thing could find!

Charles: This means it would have the traits and abilities of heavy hitters like Goku, Vegeta, Piccolo, King Cold, and even Frieza on its list.

Remarkable-Emu: Making the result a "perfect warrior" or moreso... creating the being known as none-other than Cell!

Charles: But even with this genetic makeup, he was... imperfect. So that's when he decided to suck up those androids one-by-one and become what we call... PERFECT CELL!

Remarkable-Emu: And he even hosts a little game show of his! Known as the Cell Games! Where he'd destroy that fraud Hercule, then even fight Goku's pacifist son, Gohan! And we see here, he can spawn babies that look like him out of his tail! Holy shit!

Charles: These tiny little menaces are known as Cell Juniors. They're naughty, stupid, playful, yet can kill you if you look at them wrong. They even know the same moves as Cell himself! Like father, like sons!

Remarkable-Emu: But that's not all that Cell can do! Given his genetic makeup, he can do those special moves like the Special Beam Cannon, Kamekameha (Super, Bending, Earth-Destroying, Solar, KKH return ones too) the Big Bang Attack (Including the Big Bang Crash and it's super variant), regenerate, and even the mighty Death Beam! (Including the Barrage and Full Power Ones)

Charles: But if you wanna go farther against this bio-android, he can create shockwaves, release a beam from his mouth, and even release a massive energy wave out of his palms! But there's this one move he knows and it's known as: Unforgivable.

Remarkable-Emu: Unforgivable is when Cell becomes a discord moderator and explodes when attacked or when a minute passes! Not only that, but the explosion is capable of destroying an entire planet.

Charles: This same explosion would also kill the mighty Goku, King Kai, Gregory, Bubbles, and the absorbed Android 17. This move is no joke, especially when it's irreversible. But somehow, yet somehow, the green guy survived off one single cell.

Remarkable-Emu: Because after he became that Cell once again, you better believe like every single other villain from Dragon Ball, he'd cause some chaos upon some unsuspecting humans.

Charles: And upon returning back to Earth, he'd have killed Future Trunks with his special Death Beam.

Remarkable-Emu: And of course, he'd fight Vegeta, and even Future Gohan, which he had to say a farewell to his arm, oof!

Charles: And fighting Gohan must've given him even more love of the fight; Because there's nothing as fun as destroying the Z-fighters and even our entire solar system for cheap tricks to him

Remarkable-Emu: But thanks to that father-son bonding from Goku and Gohan, that Cell would be knocked out of the immune system thanks to the FATHER-SON KAMEKAMEHAAAAAAA!!!!

Charles: ...Which the Cell Juniors, of course would learn this with their so-called dad. You see, maybe Cell's not all that bad after all! He seems like a good dad, unlike Remarkable-Emu's..

Remarkable-Emu: Okay, but if he's so "not that bad", how come he literally went to hell and trained with the #1 saiyen hater Lord Frieza? And even in that hell, he made a partnership with Frieza's schmuck dad and some retired Ginyu Force members. He's moreso "Virus" than Cell!

Charles: ...Okay, I now take that back.

Remarkable-Emu: Take back all you want, but Cell is a perfect fighter, and pretty dang strong! He's fought off beings like Piccolo, Android 17, and Gohan in the Super Saiyan 2 state! Although the later did kill him...

Charles: But if you haven't noticed yet: Cell go beyond perfect... Super Perfect. Because after that simple kamikaze he did, he would become stronger than before!

Remarkable-Emu: Because he would learn the Instant Transmission! Which allows him to move meters to light-years, from the living world to the otherworld, some might say outside TIME itself. Just imagine how scary it would be to see this guy come out of nowhere.

Charles: This along with a massive boost from Zenkai and gaining an electrified aura, would create his strongest form, known as Super Perfect Cell. Question is: how in the world did Doctor Gero create this overpowered son-of-a-bitch?

Remarkable-Emu: ...But the true question is: what is Cell? Is he imperfect? Semi-Perfect? Perfect? Super Perfect?

Charles: None of that, Cell has mastered perfection. And from what I see, he's more than what meets the genetic eye.

The Analysis for Cell Ends.

Metal Sonic has HOW MANY FORMS? Let's Find Out What's His Magnum Opus!

Charles: Doctor Eggman, named after food, hates Sonic and everything about him (including his friends), has that cool mustache, and his plans keep being screwed up by that blue blur every single time!

Remarkable-Emu: But after 75 too many failures, this would give Eggman an idea: To create something bigger than all of his mechs combined. Hence, he would create: Metal Sonic! Big bro of Sage and designed to be better than Sonic!

Charles: He's designed with a chest laser, the Black Shield (Protects him from attacks), the V, Maximum Overdrive (Makes him fly at faster speeds and becomes surrounded with electricity), and even the Ring Spark Field! (Which allows to fire 2 electric beams)

Remarkable-Emu: And because he's just that faker, he learned the Homing Attack and Spin Dash... just like every other single Sonic character probably knows. But his biggest ability to copy other abilities.

Charles: This "Copycat" ability has allowed him to use other moves by others, such as the Knuckle Slam, the Bat Guard, Telekinesis, and even Chaos Control, which can stop time.

Remarkable-Emu: Man, imagine being so much of a copy that you copy other's moves that are a copy of you! This, along with showing his devotion to Eggman and ability to never give up, no matter how much he's defeated shows his will to kill is unimaginable!

Charles: And along with this said "Will to Kill", if you've read this title, you should know he has many, many forms.

Remarkable-Emu: These forms include: Neo Metal Sonic (Can shapeshift, fly, and shoot lightning from his hands), his Super Neo form (Can gain extreme strength, speed and shoot golden bolts of lightning), But his strongest form is the Metal Overlord!

Charles: The Metal Overlord is no joke. Not only can he fly and use Chaos Control, but it took literally 3 super forms to literally beat him, and this form even surpasses his Metal Madness form, which even with the 7 chaos emeralds, the chances of beating him were super slim!

Remarkable-Emu: Not only that, but Metal Sonic is capable of being an extremely powerful figure, especially when Eggman once gave this dude in his Super Neo form his bio-data, making him quite the supergenius!

Charles: With this new bio-data, he could rule and lead the Eggman Empire along with a side of conquering the entire world as you know it.

Remarkable-Emu: If this world were to become his, he would give it to his own master, hopefully they're both not thinking about making another Eggmanland! I've been there, and it was the worst experience ever!

Charles: But despite his leadership, intelligence, and power, there's only downside of this metallic fiend: He has an unhealthy obsession with the guy he's supposed to surpass.

Remarkable-Emu: Like, very UNHEALTHY. He literally thinks he's the perfected version of Sonic! To be fair, he does look cooler than the actual deal....

Charles: Even so that he copied Sonic and Shadow's bio-data, along with absorbing the Master Emerald would transform him into something beyond belief.

Remarkable-Emu: ..Something stronger than Metal Overlord?

Charles: Yes, because doing all of this step-by-step would create the one and only... Master Overlord, his strongest form. With this, his strength and speed would be induced, along with the fact he can now shoot massive crystal projectiles.

Remarkable-Emu: ...Holy Shit! The title was right! He does have many, many forms! One can do this, the other can do that, then there's whatever Master Overlord is! What else does he have?

Charles: Color Powers. Using the Hyper-go-on, which is life source and energy of the wisps, he can do the Cyan Laser (Turns him into a destructive laser), Yellow Drill (Turns him into a giant yellow drill), and even the Indigo Asteroid (Which turns him into a celestial planet)

Remarkable-Emu: I need those wisps! But most importantly: some popularity! Because this Metal Sonic has placed 13th on GameDaily's Top 25 Game Robots list. And besides, unlike Michael Bay, Metal Sonic can definitely show us how a robot can fight!

Charles: You're right about something Remarkable-Emu, because Metal Sonic is truly no joke. He can catch up to Sonic, who has immeasurable speed and can even keep pace with the Master Core ABIS, who was moving galaxies at a massively faster than light pace!

Remarkable-Emu: Not only that, he scales to the Final Egg Blaster, which yields the power to destroy entire planets, along with star systems, making it have an Interstellar Range of Power!

Charles: Not only that, but he can take a beat down. Like we said, he can take on 3 Hyper Forms in Metal Overlord, and even took hits from Sonic amped with stuff like wisps and even when he was barraging him with attacks straight from his super form.

Remarkable-Emu: And he's even worthy of holding the Phantom Ruby, which can create entire dimensions which can go on forever, such as the Egg Reverie Zone and the Null Space, and go mad, all you want because it's never gonna end.

Charles: Metal Sonic is definitely someone you never wanna mess with. He's strong, he's a leader, he's himself, but most importantly..

Remarkable-Emu: He's one hell of an overlord, an Metal Overlord.

The Analysis for Metal Sonic ends.

Prelude:

Charles: The combatants are now set! We're about to see if this perfect lifeform can take on the Metal Overlord!

Remarkable-Emu: Because it's time for some action, and most importantly... A BATTLE!!!

Action Battle:

Cell, currently floating through the Cell Games arena, swings his tail lightly. But suddenly, the metallic faker descends from the ground, his red eyes locking onto the bio-android.

Metal Sonic: Target required... You will be eliminated!

Cell: Elimination does not scare me. Let's see how efficient you are, TIN CAN!

Cell starts off the fight with a punch to Metal Sonic's face, but Metal Sonic would just laugh as he backs up to use the Ring Spark Field to fire two electric beams at Cell's body, causing electricity to pulse from the bio-android's face.

Cell would immediately reply back by using the Special Beam Cannon, launching it straight towards Metal Sonic. But Metal Sonic would fire back with his chest laser.

The two attacks collide, but Cell's attack proves to be stronger, as it sends Metal Sonic flying into the ground. And then uses one of the wisps to transform into the Yellow Drill, as he immediately launches himself towards Cell.

But Cell would smirk as he holds the drill with his bare hands, and uses his mouth to create a giant energy wave powerful enough to send Metal Sonic out of his drill form.

Angered, Metal Sonic uses his spin dash and begins to saw straight at Cell's head, before Cell uses the giant energy wave from his mouth again to send him off his face, then releasing the Death Beam straight at Metal Sonic.

But out of the smoke, Metal Sonic would immediately go into Neo Metal Sonic, and launch himself straight at Cell, going for a blow strong enough to make the perfect creation spew blood from his body.

Neo Metal Sonic: IT'S TOO LATE....

This causes Cell to release a giant Kamekameha at Metal Sonic, only for him to copy it and release it straight back at him, catching Cell by surprise and launching him several meters away and into the stands of the Cell Games. He then spits out blood before laughing.

Cell: Time to show you... who's Truly Perfect.

Cell releases a Barrage Death Beam, hitting Metal Sonic numerous times before Metal Sonic dodges one of them and moves close up to use Knuckle Slam on Cell, causing the stand Cell was implanted on to turn into rubble.

Cell then gets up, brushing off the dust on his arms before releasing the Super Kamekameha, to which Metal Sonic would grab another wisp and turn into the Cyan Laser to pierce right through Cell's beam and create a large crater in the ground.

But when the dust clears, multiple mini-Cells (aka Cell Juniors) pop out, giggling and laughing as they begin to mess with Metal Sonic, who would desperately try to fling them away and try to destroy them, but the amount was starting to overwhelm him.

But it wouldn't be until Cell finally reveals himself and all of the Cell Juniors begin to use the Father-Son kamekameha. This makes Neo Metal Sonic go Super as he releases his own beam to clash with the beams.

As the massive explosion occurs, Metal Sonic would still see many Cell Juniors. So in an attempt to destroy all of them, he arcs a giant bolt of lightning straight at the Cell Juniors, destroying them all.

After this, he'd teleport behind Cell who seems to have had enough of his shenanigans.

Super Neo Metal Sonic: I'LL CRUSH YOU!!!!!!

Metal Sonic then spindashes, taking on a saw-like form as he cuts into Cell's body... nearly killing him before Cell uses a massive energy wave from his palms, before going... Super Perfect.

Super Perfect Cell: PREPARE TO DIE, MERE MORTAL!!!!

Metal Sonic releases many bolts of lightning at Cell, to which he would launch the Big Bang Attack at Metal Sonic, seemingly killing him and causing a massive explosion.

Cell: Another would-be challenge to beat it... Son Goku, you're-

Before Cell could finish his sentence, he would see Metal Overlord looming over him, much to Cell's shock. But instead of forfeiting, he'd release a giant smirk from his face as he releases the Solar KameKameha, causing Metal Sonic to roar in anger.

Metal Sonic would then do Chaos Control before Cell could do anything else as it pauses times long enough for him to release an attack at Cell strong enough to have him barely standing.

As a last resort, Cell would use the Super Big Bang Attack, causing a massive explosion in the sky. But to Cell's shock, Metal Overlord would use the spikes on his back like homing missiles to impale Cell straight on the spot.

This would transform Cell from Super Perfect back to his Perfect Form, making Cell decide to use Unforgivable! As his body slowly swells up into its Exploding Cell Form. But unfortunately for him, Metal Sonic, now transformed into Master Overlord, hits him directly on the spot with one of his crystals.

Cell: Impossible! I'm Perfect!

Master Overlord: NO.

Hence this has enough force to make Cell explode, destroying the planet they were on. The blast was strong enough to revert Metal Sonic back to his now heavily wounded base form.

Metal Sonic: I AM.

K.O!

Results:

Remarkable-Emu: So I guess Cell isn't perfect after all! But I have to admit, that robot looks pretty damn cool!

Charles: While Cell was more experienced in both skill and combat, Metal Sonic was stronger, faster, and definitely had more abilities in store.

Remarkable-Emu: Especially when Metal Sonic scales to tech that can pull entire star systems, catch up to beings with immeasurable speed, and even tank hits from super and hyper forms!

Charles: Not only that, but Metal Sonic can steal Cell's powers, take out the Cell Juniors using his stronger attacks, and even use Chaos Control to stop Cell from doing real harm to him!

Remarkable-Emu: Even Super Perfect Cell couldn't match up to how powerful this faker was! Even with this new super boost, Metal Sonic's forms were just stronger! Especially ones that can fight on Sonic himself and have many abilities that can take on Cell's abilities!

Charles: And Unforgivable! Didn't change anything either as well. Despite it being able to destroy an entire planet capable of killing off Goku, Metal Sonic was strong enough to take on 3 Hyper Forms at once, and even they were struggling against him!

Remarkable-Emu: Not only that, but Metal Sonic should absolutely be able to outsmart Cell, given that he's smart enough of a leader to rule the entire Eggman Empire, and trust me, i'll be a candidate for it! #Remarkable-Emu2025

Charles: Not only does his intelligence surpass Cell's, he also has the arsenal to completely overpower Cell. Such as the Wisps, which really helped him take on Cell's stronger attacks and the Phantom Ruby, which could easily send this bio-android to an endless world of doom. Ouch.

Remarkable-Emu: Cell might've been the perfect lifeform, but in the end.. Metal Sonic
CRUSHED HIM!

Next Time:

Remarkable-Emu: Next time on Action Battle!

After the images are revealed, the silhouette of the new hosts are revealed.

???: LET'S DO THIS.

HOMURA AKEMI VS HUNTER ZOLOMON (DC Comics VS Madoka Magica)
COMING SOON!

Trivia:

This is the first episode where a Sonic Character Wins (Metal Sonic)

This is the first episode where a Dragon Ball Character loses (Cell)
