

small batches, big hearts

Your purchase aids the welfare and rehabilitation of bull terriers in need and their placement into loving forever homes.

These products are produced in a home kitchen, not inspected by a health department, that may process common allergens. If you have safety concerns, contact your local health department. Brookfield, Cook County IL, Registration #26-166.

We offer small batch jams, dessert sauces, and condiments on a rotating basis. We strive to source our materials locally, support small farms and suppliers, and create interesting visual artistry and flavor combinations.

All of our yums are low-sugar, and some are based on cocktails! Our real-photo greeting cards celebrate the splendor of Mother Nature, our fiberwear is funky and colorful, and LoCo Pottery's hand made, hand painted ceramic wares are functional and absolutely fabulous. Gift boxes are available, and custom orders are welcome.
