

PowerPoint Presentation Topic

To enrich your knowledge of Lifespan Developmental Psychology, you will complete a Powerpoint Presentation on a topic that interests you in the course. Any topic from the course textbook is eligible for the Powerpoint Presentation. It is acceptable for you to pursue a topic that has not yet been covered in the course. Topics might include: a developmental period (e.g., early childhood), a biography of a famous developmental psychologists (e.g., Jean Piaget), or bullying. If you are unsure of a topic, please contact Dr. Wright to discuss. Remember, Dr. Wright will NOT pick the topic for you. There are two parts to this assignment, which are detailed below:

Part I: Submit Powerpoint Presentation Topic

To fulfill this part of the Powerpoint Presentation Assignment, students must write a one-paragraph summary of the topic for the Powerpoint Presentation. The following should be included in the one-paragraph summary:

- One sentence statement of the topic of the Powerpoint Presentation
- Three pieces of information related to the topic
- Describe two images that you will consider including in the presentation
- Include three resources, referenced in APA style, that will be used for the presentation

The “Powerpoint Presentation Topic” should be submitted to the “Powerpoint Presentation Topic” dropbox. This portion of the assignment is worth 10 points and accounts for 5% of your total grade.
