

Five things you need to know about water Climate Questions.

Answer the following based on the reading.

- 1) How is climate change about water? List and explain five (5) ways climate adaptation is going to be about water issues.
- 2) What are some ways (two each) too much water and too little water cause problems for people in certain areas?
- 3) How is water connected to energy generation and how can it lead to bigger problems? Give 5 examples.
- 4) How is getting access to clean drinking water a necessity for the world in the future? Give four examples of how a lack of clean water cause issues for society beyond drinking.