

ATOMIC BLONDE

BIO

With music taste as eclectic as her fashion choices, Atomic Blonde loves mixing everything from house classics to disco remixes, techno stompers to up-to-the-minute pop hits, to get a crowd moving.

Hailing from London but discovering her love of DJing on Sydney's sunny shores, Atomic Blonde has played everywhere from beach shacks to stadiums, bringing her infectious energy with her wherever she goes. She has supported icons from Dua Lipa to Jessie Ware, Horse Meat Disco to Carl Cox, and is no stranger to curating an atmosphere for crowds big and small. When she's not on the dance floor herself, expect to find this energiser bunny behind the decks across Australia and the international Pride circuit, from Amsterdam Pride to Mardi Gras and beyond, blurring eras and genres to guarantee a good vibe.
