

Grade 3 - Bilingual Class – Week 14 Shared Worksheet – Spring 2026

302-303-304 A1/ A2/ I1/ I2 Name: _____ ID#: _____

Write the part of speech (POS) and definition.

Word	POS	Definition
fountain sturdy avoid

Unscramble and write x3.

anyon
sealcs apoinpt

Fill in the missing letters, write the part of speech (POS) and write the word again.

Word	m_ss_v_	sh_w_r	b__nc_	th__s__d	c__l_ng
POS
Rewrite

My View Story Sentences: Why Sun and Moon Live in the Sky

Circle the wrong word from the story sentence and write the correction.

Sentence	Correction	Pg.
Sun and Water lived on the trees together.		180
Sun never visited Water, but Water never came to see Sun.		181
This made Sun feel sad, and his light shined a little.		182
"Maybe we could build a smaller house."		183
As he grinned at her, his night grew bright again.		183
They used metal from the trees to build enormous rooms with towering ceilings.		184

Phonics: Write two words for each vowel diphthong to complete the table.

ou: 1. _____ 2. _____	oi: 1. _____ 2. _____
ow: 1. _____ 2. _____	oy: 1. _____ 2. _____

Language and Conventions: Circle if the word is Common and Proper Noun.

1. A student (common / proper)
2. Taiwan (common / proper)
3. Your friend, Anna (common / proper)
4. A teddy bear (common / proper)
5. Monday (common / proper)

Reading Comprehension- The Rabbit on the Moon

Long ago, when the gods gathered to create the Sun and the Moon, they needed someone to leap into a sacred fire. One god, the humble and brave Nanahuatzin, offered himself without hesitation. He jumped in and rose into the sky as the brilliant, powerful Sun.

Another god, Tecuiztecatl, also wanted to be a bright light in the sky. But when his turn came, he was too afraid and hesitated four times. Finally, he gathered his courage and jumped into the flames.

Because he had not been as brave or as willing as Nanahuatzin, the other gods were displeased. To dim his brilliance, one of the gods quickly threw a rabbit at his face. Tecuiztecatl rose as the Moon, his light forever softer and cooler than the Sun's. And if you look closely at the full moon on a clear night, you can still see the dark shape of the rabbit resting there.

Reading Comprehension- Find the answers to the questions in the text and write them in complete sentences.

1. Who was the god that became the bright Sun?

2. What animal did a god throw at Tecuiztecatl's face?

3. What time of the month is the best time to see the rabbit's shape on the Moon?

