

IMPORTANT: By trading or purchasing (YCH commissions, adoptables, etc) any of my art, you automatically agree to the following conditions. Read it, all of it. I will deny your request If I realize you didn't read this or you don't follow these conditions.

Last edit: Nov 11, 2020

If you have any questions please ask.

WHAT I DRAW

- Furies, humans, feral; anything
- NSFW (including short comics)
- Chibi/cute/kawaii and the opposite
- Gore (not my strong suit, though)

WHAT I DON'T DRAW

- Drugs related
- Extreme armor
- Extreme detailed background
- Traditional

- You need a reference sheet or detailed written description to commission me. Unless you commission a custom character design and you want me to make it up as I go...
- I have school, and jobs, and... life... Please be patient and don't rush me. Feel free to shoot me a message if it's been, like, a month and I haven't sent you an update. I will send WIPs as I go.
- I have the right to draw personal art or take a break while I have a commission or trade pending, but I haven't forgotten your commission.
- All my artwork is copyrighted, I put my watermark on every drawing. Keep the watermark on; I promise it's not big and distracting. If you want a version without my watermark you can ask, but it's NOT allowed for public use, only personal. Please respect me as an artist.
- You (the client, no one else unless you get permission) are allowed to re-post the commission or use it as your profile photo on your page(for example: on your character/fursona account), but it must be credited including the link or username of my FurAffinity (rabiosarat).
- I will send a WIP sketch first, then you send me payment. I DO NOT COMPLETE ARTWORK BEFORE RECEIVING PAYMENT. I have had bad experiences before.
- You are NOT allowed to recolor or trace my work.
- If you already accepted the WIP of your commission, and then you ask for a change when the work is already finished, you have two options: pay more (depending on what you want to change) OR just keep the drawing. Your reference and your commission idea needs to be clear. The only time you can request free changes is during the WIP stage.
- I have the right to cancel a commission without explanation, though, I probably will explain myself. Don't push if I don't.

- Do not delete my watermark. That's a big one. It won't be big and distracting, so please keep it on there.
- Always credit me wherever you post my work. Credit me at FurAffinity (rabiosarat).
- You can make small changes to the adoptable once you buy it, for example: add piercings, tattoos, scars, etc.
- You can change the gender and name of the character once you buy it.
- Once you buy the character, you can do whatever you want with it. This means you can make NSFW art of it, roleplay, etc. You can't claim the design as your own.
- You are NOT allowed to claim the design of the adoptable as your own even if you bought it.

- I send PayPal invoices. I need your PayPal email to send you the invoice.
- Refunds on emergency commissions or emergency adoptables are not available.
- I can only refund the payment within 48 hours. If 48 hours passes after you send the payment, a refund is no longer available.
- Send payment promptly. If you take longer than 72 hours, I reserve the right to cancel your request. For custom commissions you have 72 hours after I send the WIP sketch.
- Refunds are not available after I have finished your commission/request. Don't ask.

Any questions?

Send me a DM via FurAffinity and I will reply promptly!

Thank you so much for reading and for your support!

