

Stoner Talk with Snoop Dogg

EPISODE 6

Yo yo yo! What's crackin', my homies? It's your boy, Snoop double O double G indahouse. Tonight, we be talkin' 'bout them sweet ladies in the UCC. Let me tell you, a lot's been goin' down since we last linked up. These ladies ain't just brawlin', they makin' headlines like it's nobody's business! It's a wild ride, and we gonna break it all down for ya. You feel me?

Tonight we got a treat for all you UCC fans out there. My brother from Texas gonna be takin' some long draws off some fine buds and talkin' 'bout them swaggin' ladies in the UCC. My man, Matthew McConaughey, been makin' ladies weak in the knees and breakin' heads on the big screen. Tonight, we breakin' down them Miami fights and givin' some shine to the winners and some shade to the losers.

Matthew: So good to finally get to see you again and be on your pod. It's really taking off.

Snoop: It's kinda like it's got a life of its own all thanks to the UCC.

Matthew: Alright, alright, alright. Let's get this show on the road, folks. Y'all know, everything is bigger in Texas, so I thought I'd bring along this colossal joint right here. They say it weighs just a baby hair under an ounce. Now, that's what I call a heavy hitter, ain't that right.

You see, life's a bit like rollin' up a good joint. You gotta take it slow, enjoy the process, and appreciate every moment. And just like this joint, you want it smooth, you want it steady, and most of all, you want it to last.

So let's spark it up and ride this wave together. You know, sometimes you just gotta kick back, relax, and let the good times roll. Livin', man. L-I-V-I-N.

Snoop and Mathew light up and enjoy the colossal joint savoring it until it is just a roach. They kick back and enjoy the earthy and herbal flavors while the sweet spicy blue smoke clouds the studio. They kick their feet up and prepare for the show.

Matthew: So, Snoop, my man, what are we gonna be chattin' about on this fine evening? You know, we could talk about the beauty of just kickin' back and enjoying' life. Or maybe we'll dive into some deep thoughts about the universe and our place in it. Or we could just stick to the basics and talk about our favorite munchies.

Snoop: Nah, nah, nah, we here to talk 'bout that Miami Event. It was lit, let me tell ya, but it wasn't no ordinary event. It was straight outta left field, my man, and the upsets just kept comin'.

Matthew: Of course, of course. That was something with all the surprises, man. Ya know, I got my favorites, and most of 'em ended up on the losing end. It's like the universe just decided to shake things up a bit. But hey, that's the beauty of the UCC, ain't it? You never know what's gonna happen next. Keeps us on our toes, keeps us living'. So, Snoop, what do you think about all this wild action?

Snoop: Well, since we last talked, ya boy Snoop went and hired a statistical genius. He spent the last week breakin' down that Miami event, and what he came up with is gonna be rockin' the UCC community, fo' sho.

Matthew: So who is the genius, Snoop?

Snoop: You Know I ain't one to be spendin' my precious time crunchin' them numbers when I could be consumin' some sticky y buds, so I hired the best of the best. A man who was a boy genius and has been on the cutting edge of everything high-tech ever since. Steve Urkel may be the smartest man alive. This man knows numbers better than Snoop Dogg knows strains, if ya know what I mean. A real aficionado with the digits/

Matthew: Whoa! Didn't this Urkel dude have a sitcom when he was just a kid?

Snoop: Indeed but my man Urkel has been spending his time working on databases and stats and what he came up with is astonishing.

Snoop Dogg hands Matthew a folder with 30 pages of data compiled by Steve Urkel all drawn from the Miami event. It was all clearly broken down into divisions, categories, and relevance. Matthew takes a minute to sift through the data, then looks up at Snoop.

Matthew: Oh man, this is big. You mean to tell me that this little pecker came up with all this? Something went on in Miami and this data is going to blow people's minds. Kaboom! Blown away, man.

Snoop: Exactly, my man. Something happened and we're going to get to the bottom of this. Before we do, I got a little something we need to do first.

Snoop pulls out an even bigger joint than the one Matthew had earlier. They light it up and kick back until there is nothing left but a pile of ashes. They take in the moment then start going through the folder.

Snoop: Yo yo yo, stick with us at home. Light up that green, kick back, and soak in these dope stats. Cause if you ain't in the right state of mind, they might just blow you away. These numbers got some serious weight, so make sure you're ready for this trip. We gonna start with some upsets.

UPSETS

Matthew: So which of these little nuggets stuck out as the biggest upsets?

Snoop: It all starts with the title holders. 4 out of 5 lost their belts and only my fair Kiwi Ella defended hers. Vita Sidorkina, aka The Lioness, was the biggest surprise. Vita has been keepin' that belt since 2022 my man and this was her first title loss ever.

Matthew: Word has it Vita's out there sharpenin' her claws on the Serengeti, gettin' ready to come back with a roar like we've never heard before.

Snoop: No doubt, just an aberration for The Lioness. She be gettin' back to the basics fo sho.

Matthew: I saw a lot of upsets at the top of the brackets. Being a favorite didn't help as 8 of the 11 top Lightweights, 8 of the 10 top Welterweights and 8 of the top 10 Middleweights favorites all lost. Of the top 50 matches, there were 39 upsets.

WINNING STREAKS NO MORE

Snoop: Win streaks my man are a thing of the past. 16 Featherweights, 9 Lightweights, 9 Welterweights, 12 Middleweights, and 13 Heavyweights all saw their win streaks come to an end, That's a total of 59 win streak that are no more!

Snoop: Zendaya Coleman and Tsianina Joelson each saw their 7 fight streak come to an end.

Matthew: And it's not like the Champs got away scott free. Audrey Allen and Megan Fox, former title holders had their 6 fight win streaks snapped.

Matthew: It's not just the winning streaks that were broken, man. It was the losing streaks that might be the biggest story

Snoop lights up and blows some smoke rings.

LOOKING BACK ON LOSING STREAKS

Snoop: And then the impossible happened. We talkin' bout the biggest upset in UCC history. +168 beat -309. Now, many might see Vita the Lioness as the biggest upset, but nah nah nah. Odette Yustman, who's been in the UCC since day one and never won a fight, was winless at 0-15. It was so rough she didn't qualify for 17 events 'cause her ranking was so low. So low, in fact, that for 11 events she was the lowest-ranked fighter in the UCC. Odette looked at what was happening and said, ya know what, maybe I can win a fight. Odette is now 1-15, and who knows, man? She might start rackin' up some more wins..

Matthew: That just blew my mind, man. That's 2,041 days without a win and, boom, Odette's a winner. It's like a drought finally breaking with a downpour, turning everything green and alive again.

Snoop: Maybe Queen Kylie be wantin' Odette real soon.

Matthew: Kendall Jenner, Vita Sidorkina, Megan Fox, Audrey Allen, and Kylie Jenner. These top fighters in the UCC are heading into the next event without something Odette has—a win in their last fight. Odette is on a high cruisin' with the wind at her back, like a classic convertible on Route 66, just glidin' smoothly down the highway of success.

Snoop: Upsets, man they was comin' in waves and them win streaks, they meant nothin'.

Matthew: Megan Fox had won 6, and Ellie Goulding lost 2 and she got injured the last time she fought Fox. But this time, Ellie came back strong and won. It's like she's a classic muscle car, gettin' a tune-up and ready to roar back onto the track, leavin' the past in the dust. Megan was favored -179 to +227 and if the odds of previous UCC bouts played out Megan should have won 6 out of 7 times.

Snoop: Oh man, this is unbelievable.

Matthew: The good news is that a lot of those embarrassing losing streaks are now in the rearview mirror. They're a thing of the past, like a pair of bell-bottom jeans gathering dust in the back of the closet. We've moved on, man, and the road ahead is lookin' a lot brighter.

Snoop: Check this out my man. These fine ladies, Yelena Isinbayeva, Azealia Banks, and Ana-Mia all broke 7 fight losing streaks.

Matthew: And these remarkable ladies, Emme Rylan, Manuela Arcuri, Sanna Marin, Viviane Geppert, Alison Brie, Elle Fanning, Aubrey Plaza, all saw their 6 fight losing streaks come to an end.

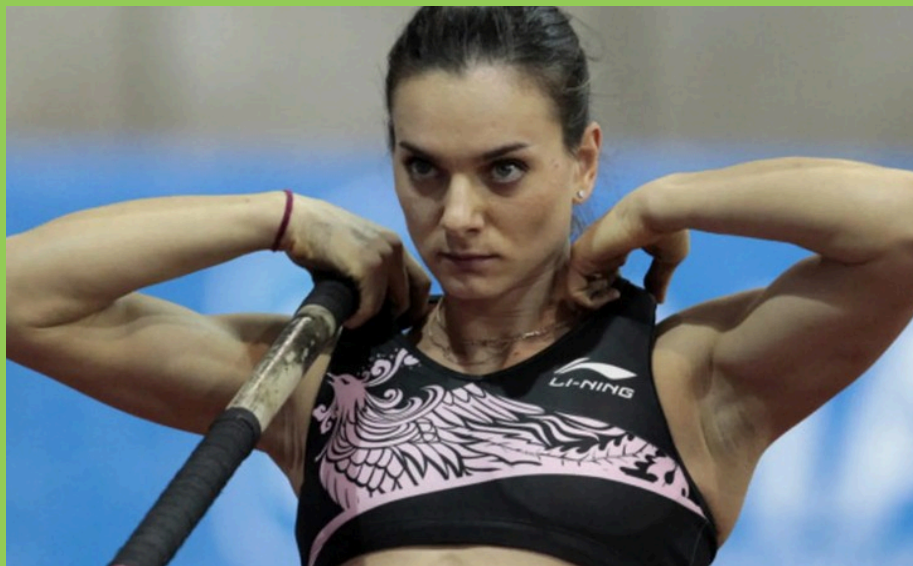

Snoop: It keeps going my man. Saerom, Carly Lauren, and Josephine Langford all stopped their 5 fight losing streaks.

Matthew: Dua Lipa, Geeorgina Cassar, Haya bint Hussein, Jennifer Lopez, Lindsey Vonn, September Carrino, Caylee Cowan, Jennifer Garner, Flava Cacace, Sofia Wylie, Riley LeCotey, Anna Cathcart, Katerina Hartlova, Yael Shelbia, Brittany Raymond, McKayla Maroney, and Elisabetta Gregoraci put their 4 fight losing streaks behind them.

Snoop: And there's more. 19 lovely ladies put their 3 fight losing streaks to an end fo sho.

Snoop: Check this out, my friends. Bella Heathcote's big win streak got cut short by Azealia Banks, who finally snagged a win after seven straight L's. And it keeps rollin'. Sierra Skye Egan's win streak was ended by Yelena Isinbayeva, who was on a seven-fight losing streak. Even crazier, Dua Lipa broke her four-fight losing streak by takin' down Shaila Gatta's win streak.

Matthew: Losing streaks beating winning streaks, This never happens in the UCC.

Snoop: Yo, according to my man Urkel, there were 62% more upsets in Miami than a normal event.

Matthew: It says here that the upsets came in at an alarming 73%. Normally the UCC is a 50/50 type of league, but this is insane, kinda like hitting every green light in Dallas rush hour traffic.

Snoop: Man, all them fancy statisticians at the UCC gotta step up their game next time. Even The Swami struggled, and he's usually got it locked down real tight. Ain't nobody saw this curveball comin'. Especially the losers.

Matthew: So that's 59 winning streaks snapped and 64 losing streaks gone, all up in smoke, like fireworks on the Fourth of July, lighting up the night sky.

Snoop: Gotta admit, ain't too many streaks left. Everyone is on a level playing' field right now. That next Tournament should be up fo grabs and who knows who's gonna be winning anymore. The league is upside down right now.

SEARCHIN' FO ANSWERS

Matthew: So what made this happen? Aliens maybe? Feels like something outta this world is involved. Does Urkel have any idea?

Snoop: Yo, check it, only the UCC Gods can decipher what went down in Miami, fo' real. It's on a whole 'nother level, man, and there ain't no explainin' it. Just gotta roll with it and enjoy the ride.

Matthew: Whatever it is, we may never see the likes of it again. It was like witnessing Halley's Comet streak across the night sky—rare, breathtaking, and unforgettable.

Snoop: As always it's been a pleasure Mr. McConaughey.

Matthew: Glad to be here and share some nuggets with you.

Snoop: Till we meet again let me leave my homies with some parting words.
