

If you find yourself needing academic support, your first step is to contact the teacher of the course in which you need assistance. Office hours are 3:05 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. Tuesday-Friday. Additional supports are listed below.

Academic Supports	Description
Academic Resource Center (ARC) - B10	Drop-in help for mathematics, science, and English is available from teachers and teacher assistants throughout the day.
Library	Check out the library resources or email the librarians: Ms. Julia Furukawa, jfurukawa@maine207.org and Ms. Jennifer Don, jdon@maine207.org
Peer Tutoring	The Maine South Peer Tutoring program will begin in mid-September. Peer tutors are available in the Academic Resource Center for a variety of courses and subject areas. Stop by before, during, or after school in the ARC to meet with a peer tutor. For additional questions, contact Ms. Zanfina Muja, zmuja@maine207.org .

Your counselor is also a good resource for problem-solving with you on the type of support that you may need.
