

My name is Susanne Elser, and I'm with Mondial Travel, a family-run destination management company based in Vienna, Austria. Back in 1999, John Sabol was one of my first clients and since then I have had the pleasure to arrange more than 35 successful groups for and with him in Austria, Germany, Czech Republic, and Hungary. His attitude towards his groups is exceptional, and considering that some of his clients choose our destinations repeatedly makes us with proud, and we are very grateful for such a great and long term cooperation.
