

My name is Maya Rucker and I'm a Brooklyn-raised photographer with a BFA in Photography from Kean University. As a photographer at Life Church in Nazareth PA, I'm inspired by how God has uniquely crafted each person and aim to reflect that individuality in my work. Whether capturing Brooklyn's streets or intimate church moments, I focus on telling authentic stories that showcase the beauty of life and humanity.