Learn the Mac

1. The guts of the computer is called _____
2. Any time you download something from the web or your email, you can find it stored in _____
3. When you click the yellow dot to minimize something on your Mac, it goes to the _____
4. What is one of the two ways to get out of full screen mode?
5. On a Mac computer, a right click is referred to as a _____ click, which is done with _____ fingers.
6. How do you add an application to the dock?
7. On a PC, ctrl-alt-delete is the same as _____ on a Mac. What is one way you can do this?
8. You can scroll on a Mac by using _____ fingers and "pushing" the window up.
9. Is it possible to set a scroll bar in Safari? How would you do this?
10. To learn the different gestures in Mac, go into _____ pad within system preferences.
11. You can set up a _____ account for other people who might use your computer. This allows them to use the computer, but maintains privacy for you.
12. You can talk to your computer and have it translate to text on the screen by turning on _____. This can be used anywhere within the system.
13. To search for something on your computer, click the _____ icon.
14. If you want to use the Internet outside of school, click the _____ icon and choose the wireless network available.
15. Applications that are running in the background of your computer are located on the _____. You can access this by using a _____ finger swipe.
16. How can you "exercise" your battery?
17. Should the computer always be shut down at the end of the day or is it OK to let it sleep?
18. To get an App that isn't already on your computer, select _____ store under the apple icon.