

Names of Reviewers:

Historical Investigation Peer Review Rubric

Check off each element when found. Make sure to review each part in the paper to give feedback!

Part A: Framing the Issue

Research question that is specific to a particular revolution _____

Plan of investigation (sources that will be used) _____

One full paragraph _____

Part B: Summary of Evidence

At least four sources are used (one has to be a print source) _____

The sources are weaved together, into a “story” of the research _____

Organized by time (chronologically) or by topic (thematically) – NOT a list of sources in order _____

MLA citation guide for “in-text” citations is followed _____

2 FULL (not one and 2/3rds) to 3 pages _____

Part C: Analysis

Commentary about the evidence in Part B, as related to the research question _____

One page or more _____

Part D: Conclusion

Thesis statement that is an answer to the research question and explanation of importance _____

One full paragraph _____

Part E: Bibliography

The start of each citation is indented, like to start a paragraph _____

Single spaced within citations, double spaced after each citation _____

MLA format for “works cited” citations, in alphabetical order _____

ALL OF THE ABOVE:

Times New Roman, Size 12 Font _____

Double spaced (except within citations in Part E) _____

No use of first/second person (“I” or “my” or “you” for instance), except in Part A _____

This is just a general guide – please see the grading rubric I passed out for specifics!