Re: Unsafe environment for Jews and Israelis at MIT

To President Kornbluth and Members of the MIT Corporation,

The full-day blockade and protest staged by the CAA on November 9 in Lobby 7 followed by an even larger protest on the steps of Lobby 7 on November 12 has demonstrated that inaction by the administration of MIT is contributing to an unsafe environment for Jewish and Israeli students on campus. Over the past five weeks since Hamas's deadly act of terror against Israel on October 7th, MIT students have been subjected to an onslaught of antisemitic harassment and hate speech on campus from members and supporters of the Coalition Against Apartheid (CAA), an ASA-approved, MIT-funded anti-Israel group. Though we have met with the MIT administration numerous times in these weeks, we have seen no successful action taken to make Jewish and Israeli students on campus safer. Indeed, each day has brought new antisemitic social media posts, emails sent to student dormspam, and posters glorifying the murder of over 1,400 innocent Israelis. While many of the CAA's activities violate MIT's own rules (chalking \(rule\), class disruptions, Lobby 7 "die in", office harassment, blockade), MIT's impotence and failure to quell this hate group has emboldened them to behave more and more brazenly. Rather than provide actionable guidance and responsible leadership, the MIT administration has displayed a disheartening pattern of empty verbal assurances without subsequent tangible actions.

We outline a specific timeline of actions taken by members of the CAA and their supporters, leading up to their unsanctioned protest and blockade on November 9th. These actions included supporting Hamas and calling for violence. We thought the targeted harassment of MIT-Israel staff in their offices last week would be the worst of it; we were wrong.

Starting at 8:00am on November 9, members of the CAA staged a blockade in the lobby of Building 7 (at 77 Massachusetts Avenue, the main entrance of MIT), ignoring warnings from the MIT leadership that this action is firmly against MIT policy and may result in disciplinary action. Jewish students in nearby classrooms reported being disturbed by the loud hateful chants. To get to their classes or offices, many students were forced to squeeze through the intimidating protest, which included graphic signs such as "Sally you can't hide" splattered in red paint to look like blood, as well as posters intended to intimidate Jewish faculty by name. In the evening, groups were chanting slogans outside Lobby 7, proclaiming that "resistance is justified," and calling for an intifada. Both "resistance"¹ and "intifada"² are calls to violence against Israeli and Jewish civilians.

² "Intifada" refers to long violent periods of suicide bombings of Israeli busses, restaurants, and public space, stabbings, and other attacks on civilians. It is tantamount to calling for repeats of Poway, California and Pittsburgh Tree of Life synagogue shootings here in the United States.

We met with the MIT administration the night of November 8th to explain that the CAA's planned blockade crossed a line into harassment. MIT preemptively banned the type of disruptive indoor protest planned by the CAA and said that there would be disciplinary action if this took place. MIT failed to effectively deter the students participating; when MIT communicated that protesters remaining after 12:15 pm would be subject to suspension, the CAA was emboldened to continue violating MIT policy and responded by bringing in over 100 unaffiliated people to assist in the protest on MIT's campus \(also here\). The CAA advertised far beyond the campus, encouraging swarms of strangers into the building, making the event increasingly unsafe, so much so that, rather than enforcing relevant policies, MIT issued an official advisory alert to the entire MIT community to avoid Lobby 7. MIT Hillel and several concerned faculty strongly recommended that Jewish students specifically not enter Lobby 7; the onus to protect Jewish students should not be on the students themselves. MIT let protesters (including MIT students and non-MIT affiliates) chant for hours—from the Student Center to the end of the Infinite Corridor, every student could hear their cries for intifada³ and the destruction of Israel “from the river to the sea”.⁴ MIT failed to de-escalate the situation, as it promised it would do. The MIT Jewish and Israeli community has participated in thoughtful conversations with MIT and followed MIT's selective rule enforcement, such as the selective enforcement of an anti-banner rule that caused a student to be forced to take down Israeli flags on their office window, while flags of other nationalities remain flying on campus today.

This is unacceptable. The administration's feckless handling of campus safety issues has eroded our trust in their ability to ensure the well-being of Jewish and Israeli students and enforce their own rules on the CAA and others that promote antisemitism or violence. At 10:28 pm on November 9th, President Sally Kornbluth released a statement that “students who remained after the deadline will be suspended from non-academic campus activities.” With no definition of non-academic campus activities or straightforward action plans, this statement fails to outline direct measures to protect the safety of MIT students. The statement also failed to condemn the violent rhetoric of the anti-Israel protesters nor acknowledge the fact that all pro-Israel students immediately complied with the administration's warning to leave Lobby 7 before 12:15 pm, while only the CAA supporters remained afterward.

Just three days later, on November 12th, the CAA invited thousands of protesters to block Massachusetts Avenue and the entrance to Lobby 7 as they shouted to “globalize the intifada”

³The most recent intifada was a brutal campaign of suicide bombings, stabbings, and other attacks by racist terrorist groups, in which over 1,000 Israelis were murdered. Slogans calling for or supporting the intifada glorify and promote terrorism against Jews and Israelis everywhere and turn Jewish people and institutions around the world into targets for violence and hate.

⁴This is a direct call for the destruction of Israel, opposing the existence of a Jewish state anywhere between the Jordan River and the Mediterranean Sea. The land between the river and the sea includes the West Bank, Gaza, and Israel proper. As such, the chant does not express support for “ending the occupation,” a two state solution, or for justice and peace for everyone in the region. It is a call to strip away the rights of Jews to self-determination in their ancestral home, by wiping Israel off the map, and replacing it with a Palestinian state. While not everyone who repeats the chant means to harm Jews, this is the impact of this slogan and the political agenda it represents.

and for “one solution: intifada revolution”, with protesters holding up posters of blood libel against Jews.

We, the concerned students, faculty, staff, and alumni of MIT demand a statement from MIT declaring what concrete actions they will take to discipline these students and this campus group (the CAA), and to ensure the safety of members of the Jewish and Israeli communities. We demand the following of the MIT administration:

- 1) The CAA and any other group that violates MIT rules and incites antisemitism against Jewish and Israeli students must be permanently banned, and the leaders of the CAA and of any other such groups must be disciplined and removed from campus for a substantial period;
- 2) All MIT rules must be equally enforced by MIT on all groups and individuals;
- 3) MIT must adopt and use the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance working definition of antisemitism, and educate leadership and all staff, including all offices related to DEI, about its meaning and importance; and
- 4) The MIT administration and MIT President Sally Kornbluth must publicly declare their support for combating antisemitism in all its forms, including anti-Zionist forms of antisemitism. This includes explicitly denouncing the antisemitic actions of the CAA and any other perpetrators.

If MIT takes no action, it is a clear signal that Jews and Israelis are unwelcome here. It is a clear signal that the administration supports the normalization of antisemitism on campus. MIT is the world’s leading academic institution. If it fails to act now, this decision will resonate far into the future.

Signed,

The MIT Israel Alliance

On behalf of concerned MIT Students, Alumni, Parents, Faculty, and Staff
