Good morning, teacher

Good morning, guys

Today, I´m going to talk about my special person.

She / he is .....

TEXT 1

My special person is my friend Nicolas. He lives in the same neighborhood as me and we spend a lot of time together. Nicolas is a teacher. He loves his job and he always talks about how much he loves working with children. Nicolas has a very kind and gentle personality. He always listens to others and offers good advice. He helps anyone in need, whether it's a friend or a stranger. People admire him for his generosity and compassion.

Nicolas has many hobbies. He likes to read and often creates beautiful stories in his free time. He also likes to walk and most of the time we walk together. Additionally, He loves gardening. He grows a variety of flowers in his yard. His garden is always full of vibrant colors and beautiful flowers. One of the things I appreciate most about Nicolas is his sense of humor. He has a great ability to make people laugh, even in difficult situations. His positive attitude and cheerful disposition make him a pleasure to be around.

Nicolas values his family and spends a lot of time with them. He has a younger brother and often helps him with his homework. His family is very important to him and he always dedicates time to them despite his busy schedule.

In conclusion, Nicolas is an amazing person. He is kind, generous and always willing to help others. His talents and hobbies make him interesting and unique. I feel lucky to have him as a friend.

My best friend´s name is Sofia. We study in the same class. She is also my neighbor. She is 13 years old. She belongs to a middle class family. She is a brilliant student in our class. Her favorite subject is Science. She always loves to search and discover new things. She also looks very beautiful. I sometimes call her “beauty queen”.

Her favorite color is green. She loves nature a lot. She is a honest and hard working girl. She is one of the sweetest girl in the world. She likes to play volleyball.

We share beautiful moments in the school and we enjoy very much together. She is a punctual girl. She does her all work at a fixed time.

My parents also like her very much because she is a very good and disciplined girl. We often go out and have fun together. She respects all the elders.

We visit each other's home and do the school homework. She is a nice person because she always understands me and never judges me. She always makes me laugh whenever I upset. She always stands with me in my happiness and sadness. Her company always makes me motivated.

In conclusion, I like her company very much and I think my life becomes incomplete without her. I am so grateful to have Sofia as my best friend
