

To open links on this page, click on the blue text to bring up the link address and click it.

Useful Links

SPS Summer School

Journey to College

College and Career Links

Additional Scholarships- Drury University offers a link to many additional scholarship opportunities.

Affordable Colleges Online - Guidebook for Parent of the College Bound

2023 Best Catholic Colleges

BestColleges.com- Regularly updated collection of college rankings will keep you informed about what schools across the country have to offer in terms of top-rated academics and student lifestyle. From degree programs to campus amenities, we do the research on what matters.

Best Value Schools- Find great information about scholarships, financial aid, and healthcare careers

Big Future - Help paying for college

CampusDoor- A free financial aid information site

Coalition for Access and Affordability- An unprecedented coalition of diverse public and private colleges and universities has come together to improve the college admission process for all students.

The Coalition has developed a free platform of online tools to streamline the experience of applying to college.

College Affordability Guide- Covers loans and scholarships, advice on how to save money while going to college in Missouri.

College Board

College Navigator

Colleges that Superscore

College Scholarships

College Search- A reference to finding money and getting the most out of college

College Search and Ranking- Great resource for variety of different college information

College Xpress- Join CollegeXpress and register to win and find scholarships!

Common Application- A leader in the college admission process and helping students achieve their goals.

I'm First- An online community celebrating first-generation college students and supporting those who will be.

Keeping the Faith at College

Missouri Connections-Missouri Connections is a web-based program that is an amazing tool for planning your current and future academics, as well as help you explore career and college possibilities. Students who have a login and user ID can access their portfolio from any internet connection. Students at every grade level will use Missouri Connections each year to update 4-6 year plans of study, explore interests and careers, search college and financial aid websites, etc. If you do not have a login and ID, see your counselor for help establishing your login information. Parents can go to the website and explore the many parent resources available.

MO. Dept. of Higher Education- A comprehensive guide for students in search of federal and state grants, scholarships, loans, and assistance in completing the FAFSA

Missouri Health Careers

Occupational Outlook Handbook- Nation's premier source for career information

O*Net- College Exploration- Career exploration

Peterson's- Find the college that is right for you.

Pharmacy- Confronting Automation

Resources and Scholarships for Catholic College Students

Southwest Missouri Area Health Ed.- Options within health care and career goals

The Princeton Review

Understanding Financial Aid An Online Resource

Wells Fargo student site- Tools and resources for students