EdCamp Sessions 8:55-11:15

Edcamps are a kind of “unconference” where all of the sessions are proposed by participants the morning of the event. Our In-service day is a kind of hybrid EdCamp. That is, we have some pre-planned sessions based on prior feedback from staff, but participants will also have the opportunity to propose sessions on Monday morning . If you have something you want to learn more about, you can propose a session! No pre-planning is necessary as the workshops are informal. Instead of formal presentations, facilitators will guide conversations and sharing, and will also make sure to have someone in the group take notes. We'll use the note docs to share ideas and resources with all staff to multiply our learning long after the day is over!
