Final Version of the 2026-2027 AVM

In this year of discernment and reflection, we remain a spiritual oasis. Ministry belongs to all of us: we joyfully tend the welcoming hearth with a foundational commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. And, we go out into our broader community, living our values by honoring what's come before while meeting what this moment requires of us.