

May 17, 2022 - The unofficial results of the Suffern Central 2022-23 school budget show an approved budget with 4555 'yes' votes, or 77.88% of the vote. The budget totals $152,225,964 and reflects a 5.10% budget-to-budget increase and a 1.21% tax levy increase.

For Proposition 2, 81.14% of voters, or 4848 'yes' votes were cast, allowing the District to use Capital Reserve Funds from May 2017 to repair and replace roofs at Suffern Middle School and Suffern High School. Proposition 3 passed with 75.88% of voters, or 4438 'yes' votes, allowing the District to establish a new Capital Reserve Fund for the purpose of funding future District-wide improvements.

"Thank you Suffern Central for voting to approve our budget, " said Superintendent Dr. Erik Gundersen. "This year's budget will allow for us to expand on our social and emotional supports, enhance curriculum and instruction opportunities, make needed improvements to our facilities and continue to provide the best programs and offerings to meet all our students' needs."

In addition to the passing budget, Matt Kern and Chris Nicpon have been elected to the Board of Education. These seats carry a three-year term which will begin on July 1, 2022, and conclude on June 30, 2025.

###