

=RESURRECTION=

"I am the resurrection," (John 11:25)
Jesus said, "and the life;"
All we want or ever need
Can be found in Christ.

We look not for another,
A person or event;
Jesus is our all in all,
Now, and when life is spent.

All of God and all of heav'n
Is found in our sweet Lord;
All we ever want or need
Is in the living Word.

One day all the graves will ope
And all the saints arise,
But our resurrection's found
In our sweet Savior's eyes.

What more need we than His smile,
What long for we besides?
In Him we live, breathe and move,
And in Him, yes, we rise.
