What's in a name?

A name gives us identity, but we are not always recognised by it.
A name is given to us, at birth, by friends, to explain.
A name can change through time, shortened, lengthened, swapped.
A name places us, maybe within a family, Grandpa Fred or Nana Beth.

Will our name be remembered, Mr Thingamy or Miss Whatsit.
Will our name be recalled, or will it be forgot.
Will our name be revered Krishna, Jesus, Vishnu, Gandhi.
Will our name be shouted by many or whispered by a few.

Our name is personal, it belongs to us.
Our name may be remembered for generations to come.
Our name may be fleeting, only family may remember.
We are known by a name, use it wisely, lest forgot.

Identity

Jesus was given many names in Chapter 1 of John's gospel.

S Jesus of Nazareth
o L T Lamb of God

Who has influenced you or that you look up to?

You know us!

You know us by name

Every hair of our head

You know what sits in our hearts

Our deepest desires spoken or unspoken

You will walk with us if we allow

You will never forget us

You know our name, each individual

But you have many

Too many to list here

I will call you as I know you

Walk with me!
