"No!" Mr. Murray said sharply."	194	Mr. Murry is urgent and demanding, he is very stressed. I know this based on the word choice of, "sharply."	Words Matter/Tone

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
"Walker and Archer had started moving again; bemused , Simon followed them as they crossed the courtyard and stooped a few feet away from where the women sat."	28	Simon has no clue what's going on and he is very uncomfortable. The connotation is negative and really high, it means he is really confused.	Connotation

End Page Friday 209

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
"But no - he was stuck in the land of never ending research and perpetually uncomfortable chairs."	176	He is really bored, so much that he is annoyed. He doesn't want to be there and he doesn't want to do research.	Tone.

Week 5 Beginning 2/3 What I'm Reading: Keepers of the Lost Cities Unraveled

End Page Friday 369

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
" Tell me who you are! " she demanded , squeezing his wrist harder."	344	The tone word demanded gives an urgent and frantic tone. I know this new character is frantic, and a little scared. By this I can infer that she knows she shouldn't be talking to him and she knows she should have just walked away. But for some reason she just has to know something about him.	Tone/inference

Week 6 Beginning 2/10 What I'm Reading: The School for Good and EVil

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
"...Whatever the explanation, it isn't a School Master and it isn't evil spells.' 'So who's kidnapping the children?' "No one. Every four years, two idiots sneak into the woods hoping to scare their parents, only to get lost or eaten by wolves, and there you have it, the legend continues."	12	In one point of view the character is hopeful and thinks that it is true that she will get kidnapped by the School master and learn magic. While in the other point of view, the character thinks the other is stupid, delusional, and illogical. She thinks the same for the wild story she thinks is true. This adds to how they may react later on. If they do get kidnapped the first character's point of view would be correct and she will be thrilled while the other character will be in disbelief. As for if the second character's opinions turn out to be correct the first character will feel stupid. Each point of view holds its own story.	POV

Week 7 Beginning Date 2/17 What I'm Reading: Renegades

End Page Friday 60

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
"A spiral of flames in bold black ink, its edges fading away into his own dark skin."	56	This is a fire spiral because fire is strong and a source of great destruction. It is a spiral because the fire is controlled into this spiral design. The symbol can represent a warrior who is strong and has a lot of power and is calm and controlled.	Figurative language. (Symbolism)

Week 8 Beginning 2/24 What I'm Reading: Renegades

End Page Friday 100

Passage from the text/Quote	Page #	Comment including so what	Type of Entry
"It was the day they'd officially adopted him, more than a year after his mother's death. The wounds hadn't healed, but something about completing the paperwork had left him feeling like he was no longer floating away, untethered to a family, detached from any sense of belonging."	99	Adrian's mother's death caused damage to him. He felt better since he was adopted but there is still a wound. That is why he thinks he has to be a hero, to heal the wound, he has to be a hero like his adopted dads.	Inference.

Week 9 Beginning 3/3 What I'm Reading: Renegades

End Page Thursday
