WHAT TO KNOW!*Writing About An Illustration

When writing something about a character or an illustration, you must look at them carefully and be sure of what is illustrated.

Say something about it.

The possible answer that you might think of is that “It is a wig.” And you are right!

Let us be more specific about the illustration.

When you are asked to say something about the illustration, you can start by identifying what is in the picture.

Example: wig

To be a little specific, you can use other words to tell something about it:

Example: a wig

the wig

or add any describing word that is also shown in the picture:

Example: a curly wig

a black wig

Finally, you can also write a complete sentence about it.

Example: It is a curly wig.

The wig is black.

A. Directions: Read the short poem. Answer the activity that follows.

My Favorite Person

by: Lhaiza Magno

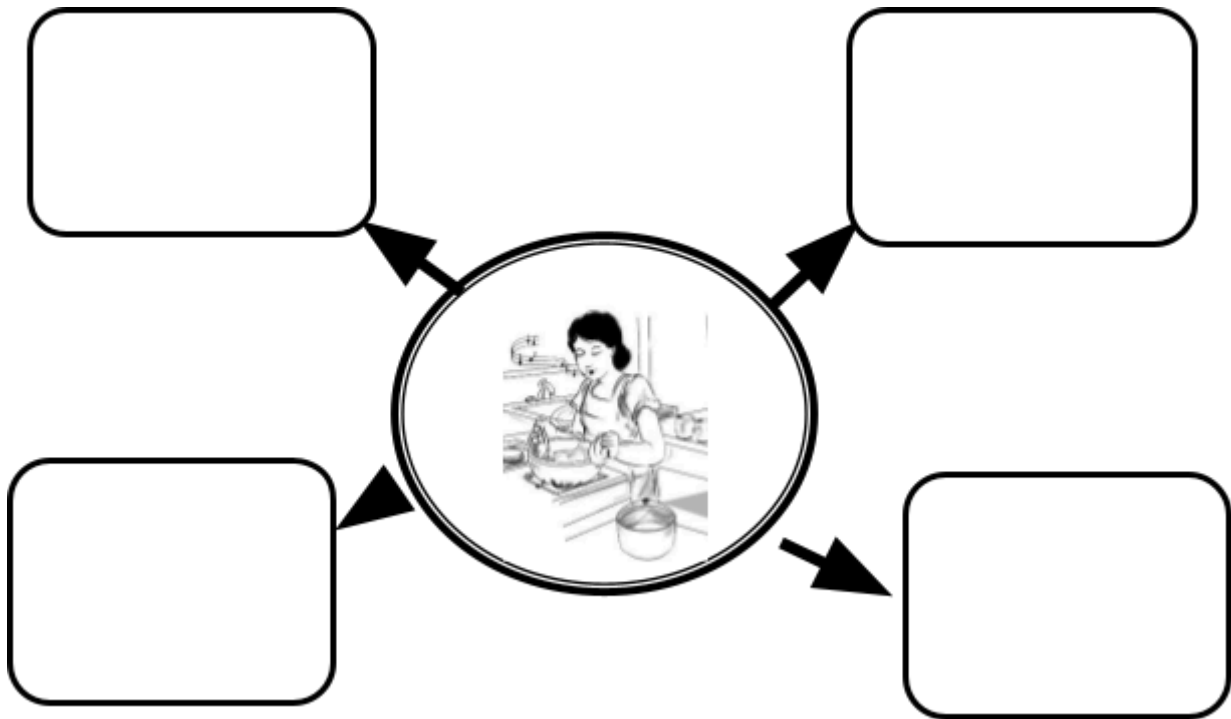

She is pretty, she is kind.
She loves cooking while singing.
From day to night she's working,
With no complaints on anything.

She's the best blessing I have.
For she loves me dearly,
Without asking anything in return.
I love her with all my heart

My mother,
my favorite person of all time.

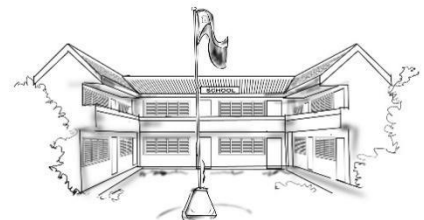

Directions: Based from the poem read, write something about the author's favorite person.

B. Directions: Write something about the illustration.
