

Hey Swanson,

I came across your website and it's fantastic! I love the way you designed your reviews in 5 different sections of quality, effectiveness, value and more.

I noticed that companies like TheVitamin use discounts on there opt- In page to make the customers entering their E-mails

So, I've designed an exclusive opt-in page for you. That'll help you collect customer emails and send regular updates, with an exclusive coupon as a gift to entice sign-ups.

Ready to take your sales to the next level? Let me know!

Best regards,

Vadim

Hey Swanson,

I checked out your website and it's fantastic! The high-quality vitamins and supplements, along with the user-friendly review system, caught my attention.

But there's even more potential to explore.

I noticed that companies like TheVitamin have modern designs and use newsletters to engage with customers.

Newsletters offer competitive advantages and boost long-term communication, leading to increased earnings.

So, I've designed an exclusive opt-in page for you. It'll help you collect customer emails and send regular updates. To incentivize sign-ups, offering an exclusive coupon as a gift is recommended.

By implementing this strategy, you'll increase sales because of a sustainable customer base.

People love coupons and tend to make more purchases with exclusive offers.

Ready to take your sales to the next level?
Best regards,

Vadim

Hey Swanson,

Your website is great. I noticed that it has high quality vitamins and supplements, with a good review system in which you can give each supplement 5 different aspects of reviews.

Your website appears good and friendly because of the review system but there is much more potential.

I noticed that other companies like vitamin, vitamin homos and several other companies are modern designed and have access to a newsletter.

A newsletter has competition benefits and is good for long term communications which will increase your earnings

This is why I designed you an opt-in page which is there to collect the emails of your customers and send them recent updates about your products, for an exchange of a gift, whereas I recommend a coupon.

You will gain more money by that because humans love coupons way more than discounts and will buy then more of your products.

If you want to make more sales,

OLD VERSION

Hey, Swanson,

I came across your website and noticed that it has high quality vitamins and supplements, with good reviews.

But as I went through your website I noticed that you are missing out several parts to make it more beneficial.

Your website appears outdated and empty because of its design. When you look at up to thevitamin.co you can see that it's colorful and modern.

Your website also misses out the opportunity to collect the data of your customers and make them more curious about your products.

This is why I designed you an opt-in page, which you can use to collect the emails of your customers.

If you want to design your website better and get more customers, reply to this Email.

With best regards,
