The MdQI Student Session connects students from Morgan State University, the University of Maryland, and Johns Hopkins University with a free, enriching opportunity to engage directly with transportation & construction industry professionals. The program begins with a 30-minute moderated Q&A panel, where panelists share insight into their educational paths, career trajectories, and professional experiences. Then the students participate in a 30-minute networking component, allowing for one-on-one interaction with panel members. Students entering the workforce will gain practical guidance, have space to ask individualized questions, and build connections with industry employers.

Attach any documentation of participation: i.e. Certificate of Attendance/Completion, transcripts, handouts, tests, programs, outline, reports and other demonstrative evidence of attendance.
