

Comfort and Joy's Art Fund Committee is excited to announce:

COMMITTEE-APPROVED ART PIECES FOR PLAYA IN THE GROVE 2017:

Philip Robert Chanin – Glitterphile

Step into the glitter zone & power-charge your inner sparkle! Whip up those meridians and feel the scintillating effect of twinkling glitter art – a large-format painting featuring an abstract facial portrait to be hung repeatedly on structures.

Glitter Moonbeam is a hard-of-hearing artist exploring glitter as a spiritual teaching medium in modern art.

PhotosByDot - Six Comfort & Joy Muses

Presented will be a selection from the “Comfort and Joy: Muses” series, which consists of 12 banners representing the values of Comfort and Joy (Welcoming, Self-Actualization, Sex-Positivity, Creativity, Inspiration, Community, Art, Queer Expression, Creating Joy and being of Service).

Dot is a studio photographer in the city of San Francisco whose main interest is photography of the nude male form.

Bernadette Bohan - Stands for Recycled Toy Pop Art

A three-way free-standing stand to install Bernadette's signature Recycled Toy Pop Art at Playa in the Grove. Her art explores topics of gender non-conformity, sex positivity and the conflated binary of mass-produced consumerism and environmental awareness.

Bernadette Bohan is a long time artist collaborator with Comfort & Joy for the past 9 years. She has lead workshops, emceed events, performed, shared site specific installations and fine art. She has been an artist in San Francisco for the past 15 years.

Mikey Mann - Geometric Portal

The Portal is a dayglo and holographic geometric structure to be partially finished when presented as a lounge space at Playa in the Grove. Geometric Portal will be made of malleable, light-weight and durable materials to creates an interactive and engaging environment.

Mikey Mann is a multimedia fiber artist focused on large scale installations equally impactful and intentional.
