Payment/Scheduling

Currently, I am taking commissions in three-month blocks, generally 12 slots per three-month period. I will be taking submission requests for a two-week period and selecting those I wish to write for the next period. If someone decides to withdraw their request, I may reach out to someone else to take that spot. If you submit the same story prompt a few times in a row and it's one I haven't been able to take on, I may accept it in the future. I will try to space out the people and themes I write for variety.

Payment will be collected at the beginning of that three-month period unless other arrangements are made. Upon payment, a story outline will be worked up, and you will have the option to be added to the Google doc to watch and comment on the story elements as I write. I will be working on the story over the three month period, PLEASE LIMIT ASKING FOR UPDATES AS I WORK. You may refer to my FA page for word count updates, and I will let you know if I think the story will run longer than the three month period.

I can be contacted any time with questions, edits, or requests as I write. If your story request for a particular opening period is not taken on, consider resubmitting for the next submission period, and I will give you priority for the next round.

Commission Submission Requirements

At a minimum, I require the following details in order to take on a commission

-Character(s) Physical description is not necessary, but details are welcome

-Transformation type/species

-Trigger/Scenario details

-Sexual Acts/Scenes

-Minimum Word Count for Payment Purposes (Additional words can be added later upon request). I will charge for a maximum of 10k words for the initial billing period since I find that longer story ideas are harder to pin down the maximum number of words. Additional words can be billed once the draft is finished and the final word count is established. I generally require about 5000 words minimum for short story transformations to allow the idea to breath.

Any other details are welcome, up to and including a story outline. Basically, the more detail you give me, the more I can write you the perfect story! I am willing to take feedback at any time during the process to help with this eventual goal.

Sample Story Word Count Rates

Not sure what size story to get? Please take a look at this guide!

5000-7000 words ($175-$245 USD) Short Story, Simple background/scenario, trigger, and a somewhat detailed transformation scene. General length to make a short story work (I generally do not write stories shorter than this). Good basis to start with

8000-10000 Words ($280-$350 USD)- Short Story, more detailed background/scenario, more detailed transformation, more characters transforming in detail, more than one sexual scene. Good if you have more plot in mind or a longer transformation scene you want fleshed out 10000+ (350+ USD) Multiple scenes, longer drawn-out changes, themes like introspection/multiple characters changing, developed scenario/plot.
