*All of the components in this document work together as a package. This means that when developing an implementation program, all components should be considered as part of the written program.

Components	Specifics	Considerations
Antecedent Strategies Evidenced-based strategies you can implement before problematic behavior occurs.	• Visual Supports • Pairing • High Ratio of Praise • Interspersing • Choice-Making • Behavior Momentum	• Individualized per student. • Used within programs to prevent problematic behaviors. • A combination of strategies can be implemented to strengthen desired behavior. CAPES Teaching Toolkit
Behavior	• ABC Analysis • Operational Definitions of Behavior • ABC Data Collection • Function-Based Antecedent Interventions

Reinforcement Delivered after a desired behavior to increase the likelihood of that behavior occurring again in the future. Used to strengthen a behavior.	Reinforcement • Identify reinforcers • Identify behavior/skill to reinforce • Schedules of Reinforcement	• Individualized per student. • The reinforcement procedure is listed in a written program or on a wall chart. • A plan for fading reinforcement should be considered. • Reinforcement is not a thing, it's about the effect on the behavior. • If the desired behavior isn't increasing, whatever is being delivered as a consequence is not functioning as a reinforcer for that behavior.
Staff Training Implementing and improving working with staff on rapport, effective communication, and introducing new teaching strategies.	Staff Training Methods • Behavior Skills Training • Blank BST Fidelity For… • Coaching	• Monitoring of implementation and re-training should occur until mastery is met • Fidelity checklists are used to monitor the implementation • Ongoing coaching should occur once mastery is met

More information regarding this training can be found on the It's All About YOU! Instructional Strategies Training initiative page.

For each topic presented, this training utilizes an implementation cycle to include in planning.
