Select a success coach (if you have no preference, check availability on the right first):

A screenshot of a web form titled "Staff". It features a search bar with the placeholder text "Search by name" and a blue upward arrow icon. Below the search bar, a dropdown menu is open, showing two options: "Cinthya Vieyra (she/they)" and "Erik Echols (he/they)". The first option is highlighted with a light blue background.

Then, select your meeting location (we don't really do phone):

A screenshot of a web form titled "How would you like to meet?". It features a search bar with the placeholder text "Search by type" and a blue upward arrow icon. Below the search bar, a dropdown menu is open, showing three options: "In-Person", "Phone", and "Video Chat". The "In-Person" option is highlighted with a light blue background. Above the search bar, there is a text box containing "Cinthya Vieyra (she/they)" with a blue 'X' icon to its right and a blue downward arrow icon to its left. Below the dropdown menu, the word "Course" is partially visible.

Entering your course information is optional. It is a good idea if you've been referred by a staff or faculty member.

Thank you for making an appointment with me! I look forward to connecting and working alongside you!
WHOA! Please read:
Academic Coaching vs. Academic Advising
Academic Success Coaches are not academic advisers. If you have questions about registration, your course plan, and other factors to meet university requirements to achieve your degree, academic advisers can best address these questions. Academic Success Coaching supports your academic plan by working on achieving your academic goals. We focus more on building strategies to support your academics such as time management, study strategies, self-care, goal-setting, and more. It is recommended to meet with both your academic adviser and Academic Success Coaches to create the best plan for you.
If you meant to make an appointment with your advisor, please cancel our meeting and make a meeting with your advisor.
