

FlickOut Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how FlickOut handles information when you use the App.

Effective date: July 7, 2026

Developer: Vladimir Spiridonov | Email: vs Spiridonovph@gmail.com | Phone: +995591675078

FlickOut is a photo and video cleaner utility for iPhone operated by Vladimir Spiridonov ("we", "us", or "our"). We designed the App to process your photo and video library on your device and to avoid collecting personal data unless it is necessary to provide support, comply with law, or operate App Store purchases.

Item	Summary
Photos and videos	Processed on your device to detect duplicates, similar items, blurry images, screenshots, screen recordings, Live Photos, burst shots, and other cleanup categories. We do not upload your photo library to our servers.
Account data	The App does not require a separate FlickOut account.
Payments	Handled by Apple through the App Store. We do not receive your full payment card details.
Support contacts	If you email or call us, we process the information you provide so we can respond.
Tracking / sale of data	We do not sell your personal data and do not use your photo library for tracking or advertising.

1. Who is responsible for this policy

The responsible developer is Vladimir Spiridonov, located in Tbilisi, Georgia.

- Email: vs Spiridonovph@gmail.com
- Phone: +995591675078

2. Information the App accesses

With your permission, the App accesses your Photos library to provide cleaning, review, grouping, and deletion workflows. This may include file metadata and visual characteristics needed to identify duplicates, similar items, blurry images, screenshots, screen recordings, Live Photos, burst shots, file size, duration, creation date, and related library information.

This processing is performed on your device. We do not upload, store, sell, or share your photos or videos on our own servers.

App settings and local data

The App may store local settings, scan results, cache files, temporary thumbnails, review states, and other technical information on your device to make the App work. You can remove local App data by deleting the App, subject to iOS behavior.

Purchases and subscriptions

If the App offers paid features, purchases and subscriptions are processed by Apple through the App Store. Apple may provide us with limited purchase status information, such as whether a subscription is active, expired, renewed, refunded, or in a billing retry state. We do not receive your full payment card number or full Apple Account credentials.

Support communications

If you contact us by email, phone, App Store review, or another support channel, we process the information you choose to provide, such as your name, email address, phone number, device model, iOS version, screenshots, logs, and the content of your message.

Diagnostics and aggregated information

Apple may provide developers with aggregated App Store analytics and crash or diagnostic information, depending on Apple settings and user choices. We use such information to understand app performance and improve stability. We do not use this information to identify you unless you directly provide identifying details in a support request.

3. Information we do not collect

- We do not create or require a FlickOut account.
- We do not collect or store your full photo or video library on our servers.
- We do not sell personal data.
- We do not use your photos or videos for advertising or tracking.
- We do not receive your full payment card information from Apple.

4. How we use information

We use information only for the following purposes:

- To provide App functionality, including detecting and grouping cleanup opportunities;
- To let you review, select, delete, or restore items using iOS and Photos app functionality;
- To verify purchase or subscription status, if paid features are offered;
- To respond to support, privacy, or legal requests;
- To debug, maintain, secure, and improve the App;
- To comply with applicable law, App Store requirements, and enforce our Terms of Use.

5. Legal bases where applicable

Where privacy laws require a legal basis, we rely on one or more of the following: your consent, performance of a contract with you, our legitimate interests in operating and improving the App, compliance with legal obligations, and protection of rights and security.

6. Sharing of information

We do not sell your personal data. We may share limited information only in the following cases:

- Apple and App Store services: to process purchases, subscriptions, refunds, analytics, crash diagnostics, and App Store distribution functions under Apple terms;
- Service providers: if we use support, email, hosting, or similar providers, only as needed to provide those services;
- Legal and safety reasons: if required by law, legal process, or to protect rights, users, security, or the integrity of the App;
- Business transfers: if the App or related assets are transferred, subject to appropriate privacy protections.

7. Permissions and user control

You control Photos access through iOS Settings. You can grant full access, limited access, or revoke access where iOS provides those options. Some features may not work if access is limited or disabled.

You decide which items to delete. The App may suggest items, but you are responsible for reviewing selections before confirming deletion.

8. Retention

Photo and video analysis data is intended to remain on your device and may be removed when you delete the App or when iOS clears app data, subject to device behavior. Support communications may be kept as long as necessary to respond to you, maintain records, resolve disputes, and comply with legal obligations.

9. Security

We use reasonable technical and organizational measures appropriate for a small utility app. However, no app, device, or transmission method is completely secure. You are responsible for securing your device, Apple Account, device backups, and important media files.

10. Children

The App is not intended to knowingly collect personal information from children. If you believe a child has provided us with personal information through a support request, contact us and we will take appropriate steps to delete it where required.

11. International users

We are based in Georgia. If you contact us or use Apple services, information may be processed in countries other than your own, subject to applicable laws and the relevant service terms.

12. Your rights

Depending on your location, you may have rights to request access, correction, deletion, restriction, objection, portability, or withdrawal of consent. To make a request, contact us using the details below. We may need to verify your request before responding.

13. Third-party links and services

The App or App Store page may link to Apple services, App Store pages, email apps, or other third-party services. Their privacy practices are governed by their own policies.

14. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make material changes, we will update the effective date and make the revised policy available through the App or App Store listing.

15. Contact us

App Store privacy disclosure note

This policy is written to describe the App as currently designed: on-device photo and video analysis, no separate account, no server upload of the user photo library, and no sale or tracking of personal data. If analytics SDKs, advertising SDKs, cloud processing, account systems, or third-party storage are added later, this policy and the App Store privacy answers must be updated before submission.
