

Online resources

1. <https://quizlet.com/>

You can make and do different types of exercises: cards, labeling, memorization, audio recording, test (also there is an option to print!); there are different already made cards that you can use anytime you want;

Special features: it's perfect as an exercise but you can add extra cards only if you're registered as a teacher.

To watch and listen

2. <https://ororo.tv/ru/channels>

TV programmes and series in English, you need to sign in for watching;
Free watching limit is 40-45 minutes per day.

3. <https://ling.online/en/videos/serials/>

TV series in English with English or Russian subtitles, which you can turn off if you want.

4. <https://www.ted.com/>

Short videos of speakers on interesting talks about different topics from nature and environment to history and biology.

Special features: there are scripts and subtitles in different languages including English

5. <https://eslvideo.com/>

Videos for different English levels;
There are scripts and exercises for each video;

6. <http://www6.fmovies.sc/>

Movies and series;

7. <https://theenglishchannel.britishcouncil.org/>

Good videos and questions to check understanding what happened in the video;

8. https://yandex.ru/portal/video?stream_active=category&stream_category=film

There are different movies on Yandex Video that you can watch for free;

9. <https://lyricstraining.com/>

Listening exercises – enter missing words from a song;

10. Application Read2U и Classic audiobooks app;
Read and listen to texts;

11. Npr.org

Radio with audio scripts (not for all the recordings)

12. sonix.ai

Decrypts audio recordings and makes scripts from them;
It shows word that are pronounced like in karaoke while playing the recording;
First 30 minutes are free, then $10 per hour;

13. <https://www.ello.org/video/index.htm>

Short interviews with real people on different topics;
Some have quizzes, all of them have scripts;
A lot of non-native speakers - you can listen to different accents;

14. <https://podcasts.apple.com/ru/podcast/culips-everyday-english-podcast/id279999557?l=en>

Podcasts about Canada and world

15. <https://podcasts.apple.com/ru/podcast/learning-english-news-review/id1291980917?l=en>

News podcastspre

16. https://www.newsinslowenglish.com/?switch_lang=3

News is presented in a slow speech, there's a script and even grammar practice.

17. <https://fenglish.ru/films/>

Free website with movies and series;
You can use English subtitles and see translation if you need it;
You don't need to sign in;

18. <https://www.couchtuner.host/>

Free website with movies and series;

19. <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCJsUvAqDzczYv2UpFmu4PcA>

Travel channel;
Special feature – short videos (he used to make 1-minute videos, scroll down to see them), quite simple language + huge yellow subtitles;
It is perfect for Pre-Intermediate students, and in some cases for Elementary students;

20. <https://www.youtube.com/c/ThisEnglishMalarkey/videos>

Youtube channel;
There are subtitles in every video:
Most videos are interview of different people in the street, so the speed of speech and pronunciation varies;
The language is quite simple, on the whole, and easy to understand.

21. <https://www.highlevellistening.com/>

Dialogues and native speakers' analyses of phrases from them;
It's not only for high-level students;
In the small talks section - introducing yourself in English, there are tips on what will be appropriate in different communicative situations: how to greet someone at work and at a party, what to do if you have forgotten the name of the other person, what kind of handshake is appropriate, etc. but only for the USA;

And on the same website there is a lot of cool vocabulary and listening on different topics, role plays on real situations (you are late for a doctor's appointment,, you want to chat someone up - there is even a scheme! Etc.);
And there are some tips for preparing for the oral part of IELTS.

22. <https://putlockers.best/> или <https://123moviesfree.net>

These websites are sometimes relocated but you can find them by googling "putlockers mirror"/"123moviesfreemirror" or " name of the film + putlockers"/" name of the film + 123moviesfree".

23. <http://dreamreader.net>

The level is announced at the beginning of the audio;
There are quizzes after some audios;
Some audios introduce new vocabulary ("lessons");

24. <https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/skills/listening> (for adults) and
<https://learnenglishteens.britishcouncil.org/skills/listening> (for teenagers)

Level selections with listening tasks for different life situations;
Script and 2-3 comprehension exercises after listening;
Both sections also have grammar and lexical parts divided into levels.

25. https://t.me/I_love_english_online read, watch and listen. You can do it for free. Also, if you can't find smth, you can text them and ask for a book/ video you're interested in.

To read

25. <http://b-ok.org/> - a library with interesting books;
26. <https://litedka.ru/english> - books for different English levels, you can see the translation of words by clicking on them;
27. Application: Medium app (articles, research, news) и Loyal books app
28. Telegram channel https://t.me/I_love_english_online with free books, audiobooks and films in English; if they don't have something that you need, you can ask them to get it.
29. App Speechify - you upload the photo of a text and the app reads it aloud for you. The app is available for free for 3 days.
30. <https://english-e-reader.net/> here you can read books for free
31. Speechify - you can take a picture of a text and this app reads it aloud. 3 days free usage
32. <https://www.quickanddirtytips.com/> - here you can find articles on finance, relations, health. For high levels
33. <https://lingua.com/businessenglish/reading/#exercises> -you can read short texts and articles on business + check yourself with questions/ quizzes
34. <https://www.visitlondon.com/things-to-do/budget-london?ref=nav> - read about London, get some useful tips and practise your reading skills there.

Podcasts and videos tutorials

31. 101English - <https://www.youtube.com/user/ENGLISHCLASS101>
32. Learn English with Papa teach me - <https://www.youtube.com/user/papateachme>
33. 6 minute English BBC podcasts - <https://www.youtube.com/user/bbclearningenglish>
34. Discussions of Netflix series and movies' (you can find them on Apple podcasts):
 - I'm obsessed with this – discussions of movie plots and series features, sometimes even with scriptwriters. A lot of active vocabulary used.
 - Because I watched – discussions of series and how they influence people, there's interesting vocabulary.
35. This podcast gives you a chance to listen to native speakers with different accents
 - <https://www.waywordradio.org> "a way with words"
 - <https://www.waywordradio.org/category/episodes/>
36. If you're interested in etymology
<https://podcasts.apple.com/ru/podcast/words-for-granted-an-etymology-and-linguistics-podcast/id11232015>
71. <https://podcasts.apple.com/ru/podcast/word-of-mouth/id869276405> also about words

To write

35. Storybird.com – you can write and create stories and poems here using beautiful pictures for long and short stories. It is the best way to reinforce new words.
36. <https://slowly.app/en/> - you can write letters on-line, but get an answer in 2-3 days

Dictionaries

37. <https://www.collinsdictionary.com/> - English to English dictionary;
38. <https://linggle.com/> - dictionary;
39. <https://youglish.com/> - plays different videos with a particular phrase or word that you need;
40. <https://playphrase.me/#/search> - plays typed phrases from different films where these phrases were used;
41. <http://www.snappywords.com/> - by typing a word you can get the whole mindmap of words with similar meanings. It uses color-coding which helps you to understand how close the words are to the original word;
42. <http://www.just-the-word.com/> - gives the words in a very useful context, which helps to understand how to use them;
43. <https://www.fraze.it/> - gives really good context - definitions, examples, translation into many languages, synonyms, antonyms, pictures, even examples with videos from Ted, magazines, newspapers, news, sites, poetry, sayings, and different other spheres from law to philosophy. Once you click on one of the examples of the word usages, there appears the whole sentence with this word, where you can click on each word to see its meaning. There are also 4 more options: visualisation of the word (pictures), its synonyms, definition in English and pronunciation.

44. <https://www.wordhippo.com/> - also there is an application which gives synonyms describing the difference between the word and the synonyms;
45. <https://ludwig.guru> – website for searching words and collocations in context;
46. <https://describingwords.io/> - website that shows what adjectives may be used with a particular noun.
47. <https://www.etymonline.com/> - you can check the etymology (origin) of the word. There's also an app.
48. <https://www.thisworddoesnotexist.com/> - these words don't exist but have quite interesting definitions.
49. <https://playphrase.me/#/search> - you will see the common phrases in different contexts and remember them faster!
50. <https://youglish.com/> - can hear the real pronunciation of the new words you want to learn

English learning applications

51. Lingua Leo
52. Duolingo
53. Bright
54. Linguist
55. Memrise
56. Busuu
57. <https://slowly.app/en/> - you can write online letters to other people, but it'll take 2-3 days for the letter to arrive. You can't upload photos here, so this app hasn't turned into Tinder.
58. <https://apps.apple.com/ru/app/elevate-brain-training/id875063456?l=en> this app helps to enlarge your vocabulary, also you can find smth to read. For high levels.
59. Words out
60. Word building