Venue website: https://www.ayy.fi/en/servin-mokki

Entry

The entrance fee is 48€, and the sign-up period ends 17.4. All entrance fees are non-refundable. Entrance gives you access to the full nine rounds of the event, as well as event-specific swag & memorabilia.

Prizes

With the full 64 players, MottiCon will have a total prize pool worth over €1100.
The winner of each individual draft pod (24 in total) will receive a prize, meaning there is always a reason to continue playing, even if you can't make top 8 any more.
The top 8 will win cash prizes.

Cubes

The tournament consists of three drafts, using 12+ different cubes. There will be a selection of different cubes, from the fairly standard Vintage Power Cube, to more unique cubing experiences. Prior to the event, players will have the opportunity to indicate their preference regarding which cubes they want to draft during the weekend.
Some of the cubes used in the tournament are:

Premodern Masters: https://premodernmasters.com/
Artifact Cube: https://cubecobra.com/cube/list/et9
Mono Blue Cube: https://cubecobra.com/cube/list/MonoUcube

Tournament structure

Each player will play a total of nine rounds over three drafts. Draft pods will be constructed prior to the event to facilitate the players' cube preferences, so pods will not necessarily have players of similar tournament records (i.e. there might be 1x 3-0 and 7x 0-3 players in a pod for draft number two).
After the ninth round, there will be a cut to top 8 determined by total match points. The highest result(s) in individual drafts will serve as the primary tiebreaker.

Per the preliminary schedule (subject to change), drafts number one and two will take place on Saturday, while the third draft and top 8 will be played on Sunday.

Organizers

MottiCon is organized as a joint venture by Sakari Castrén, Max Sjöblom, Aleksi Väänänen & Team Kettu Ry.
