

TNGO - Partnership Officer

TNGO is excited to launch a new call for a Partnership Officer to join our team. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until the call closes: apply today!

Responsibilities

- ❖ Develop and maintain relationships with potential partners, including NGOs, academic institutions, and media outlets, to expand TNGO's network and influence.
- ❖ Identify strategic opportunities for partnerships that align with TNGO's mission and goals.
- ❖ Coordinate outreach efforts, including drafting proposals, presentations, and communication materials to engage potential partners.
- ❖ Serve as the main point of contact for existing partners, ensuring regular communication and collaboration.
- ❖ Collaborate with internal teams (e.g., marketing, editorial, and fundraising) to leverage partnerships for mutual benefit and shared goals.
- ❖ Assist in organizing joint events, campaigns, and initiatives with partners.
- ❖ Track and report on the progress of partnerships, providing insights and recommendations for future collaborations.

Required Qualifications

You should apply if you have/are...:

- A degree or are pursuing studies in international relations, communications, business, or a related field.
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build and maintain relationships.
- A college student (bachelor's, master's, or doctoral) or a recent graduate.
- Interested in working in the nonprofit sector and fostering collaborations.
- Proactive, detail-oriented, and able to work independently and as part of a team.
- Comfortable working in a multicultural and remote environment.
- Experience in partnership development, business development, or related roles (preferred but not required).

This announcement is addressed to both sexes, in accordance with Laws 903/77 and 125/91, and to people of all ages and nationalities, in accordance with Legislative Decrees 215/03 and 216/03.

About us

The New Global Order (TNGO) is an independent, international, and non-profit think tank based in Rome, Italy. Founded in 2018, the organization aims to empower young and aspiring scholars and journalists to tackle disinformation on international affairs. Our unique approach to digital information, consisting of blending the reliability of academic peer review and the accessibility of journalistic reporting, focuses on transforming complex, sector-specific information into news for the general public.

TNGO operates in the pursuit of a more authentic and youth-driven paradigm of political journalism. Contrary to the brutalization of mass-media communication and news outlets, the organization produces peer-reviewed, anti-commercial, and thoroughly reliable editorial products.

All our positions are voluntary and fully remote.
