
PIP2 Supervisors and Managers Investigation Development Programme

Case Study & Task

A444 Incident

Feed 12

Following covert observations at the home address of Andre Albescu, 856, Kingstanding Road, Kingstanding, Birmingham, a search warrant was executed during the night. The warrant was executed despite Albescu not being seen at the address.

His wife, Elena was present and stated that her husband had left for Romania on Thursday morning to see family, he had a mother who was ill. She gave the address in Romania as:

Flat 3, Block 5,
Stada Ion Luca Caragiale,
Constanta,
Romania.

Elena told the police that Andre had been at home, with her, on the dates in question; the Saturday and Sunday nights. When asked about any injuries to Andre, Elena said that she was not aware of any. Her comments to the police were recorded on a body worn camera.

A telephone was seized from the address, together with a laptop computer. No other property was seized.

Task R

In your syndicates, you have 30 minutes to discuss your considerations regarding the latest update. Identify any enquiries you could now employ.

Nominate a syndicate lead to present your considerations to the class and any further decision(s) you have made.