Dear homeschool students and families:

Your students may be eligible for federal education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and Title I, Part A, of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Federal programs currently available at Drummond Schools are:

- ESEA Title 1, Part A: Improving the Academic Achievement of the Disadvantaged
- ESEA Title II: Part A: Preparing, Training, and Recruiting High Quality Teachers and Principals
- ESEA Title III: Part A: Language Instruction for English Learners and Immigrant Students
- ESEA Title IV, Part B: 21st Century Community Learning Centers
- School Nutrition Program (application required)
- Special Education IDEA, Part B
- Carl Perkins

If you are interested in learning more about the federal programming that your eligible students could receive in the next school year, please contact Superintendent Dean Phillips at the number or email below.

Regards,

Dean Phillips
