Public pressure matters. Elected officials need to hear that the community supports keeping 375 Stuyvesant in community hands — not in the hands of speculative developers.

Subject: URGENT Constituent Request — Support Saving 375 Stuyvesant Avenue

Dear [Elected Official],

I am writing as a constituent to ask for your support in helping the community preserve 375 Stuyvesant Avenue, the historic mansion and community center founded by Dr. Josephine English.

The building is under immediate threat of speculative sale due to a court-ordered process. Community members, legacy organizations, and local partners are working together to raise funds to place the building into the BLAC Land Trust, a 501(c)(3) designed to preserve Black-owned land and cultural institutions.

This space has served Bed-Stuy for decades. Losing it would represent another loss of Black history, community space, and cultural memory in Central Brooklyn.

I urge you to:

- support the community's acquisition efforts,
- amplify public awareness,
- and help ensure 375 Stuyvesant remains a community institution rather than a target for displacement.

Thank you for your leadership.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
