

Hey there Christen I know you are busy with your software company.

But I just had to let you know about this.

You see after I found out about tradelle through Instagram reels.

I was impressed by the ai voice and how it's straight to the point.

But when I visited your website I saw that your landing page lacked persuasiveness.

Due to which you are losing potential customers.

I made a better landing page for you dm me back and I will send it to you.
