

Hello Mark

Im not sure if you saw my previous message, or I just caught your attention at a bad time.

Not growing your Instagram account is unfortunately doing more harm than good.

Here's why...

A larger audience would attract more members; not expanding would mean missing out on potential members.

Is growing your Instagram account something that you're interested in?

I've created a few examples of one of the types of content you should post below.