00:32:45   Melinda Martin: Does anyone know if the Science Direct collections are in the CDI? If so, are they under a specific name?
00:34:00   Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   They are. You need to know which specific packahes you have. e.g. Seattle Central subscribes to the Health and Life Sciences package
00:34:24   Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   Oh wait. I mean they're in the Community Zone. Don;t know about CDI.
00:36:18   Melinda Martin: We also subscribe to Health and Life Sciences, but I've had trouble finding them in the CZ for "activation"
00:38:46   Lesley Caldwell (Pierce College, she/her): We had a number of dupes after going live, including students
00:39:43   Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   These were all external accounts
00:42:09   CB - Aberdeen, WA: I have an internal account with my staff ID as my login/identifier. Should I change it and how?
00:46:46   Lesley Caldwell (Pierce College, she/her): Hi CB, you can toggle your account to external so it gets updated. I toggled all of the Pierce staff before the migration (does that answer your question?)
00:48:19   CB - Aberdeen, WA: Thanks, Lesley! Yes I can toggle my account.
00:48:24   CB - Aberdeen, WA: I am curious, should I create a separate external account then?
00:48:49   Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   Gonzaga was able to set up a self-check stations with tablets, barcode scanners, and software called Meescan(?)
00:49:40   Wade Guidry: meescan.com
00:50:37   Amy Herman: I am definitely not getting all the emails from our listservs. I saw the original question about self check but never saw any replies. Grr...
00:51:35   Traci Taylor: I'm heading off to another meeting. Have a great week everyone!
00:51:39   Lesley Caldwell (Pierce College, she/her): It was Kirsti :) I had mentioned that our stacks would be closed
00:53:05   Amy Herman: Kitsap regional library has self check but I don't know what system it is
00:53:23   Deb Derylak - CPTC: I used to work for KRL - I don't think it's meescan.
00:53:58   Laura Staley: Thank you.
00:54:48   Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   Cara Beth: User accounts for all our library staff and faculty librarians are external, so they act as the Alma login account and the patron account. This way we only have to remember 1 password. We have back-up circ accounts that we can use if campus authentication breaks (1-2x/year)

00:55:30 Lesley Caldwell (Pierce College, she/her): That's what Pierce does too, CB

00:56:08 Amy Herman: Olympic does same so that we're not locked out if campus authentication goes down

00:56:23 Elena Bianco: Likewise for Skagit - user accounts external and then backup circ accounts…

00:56:49 Amy Herman: If one person can get in during a breakdown, then they can set others' accounts from external to internal temporarily

00:58:24 Stephanie: Carabeth, we have the student accounts downloaded first, then the staff accounts, since that was happening here at Skagit too.

00:58:42 Stephanie: By flipping the order of the downloads, it doesn't adjust the staff accounts to be students after the download.

01:00:01 Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   I completely reworked our User Groups with ctcLink and now we can identfy staff who are also taking classes and give them employee expiration dates and a user group that IDs them as both staff and students

01:02:27 Wade Guidry: https://sites.google.com/view/wactclc/ctclink

01:02:55 Laura Staley: Off to next meeting. Thanks all!

01:03:02 Tammy Siebenberg, YVC: I need to go. Bye all.

01:03:18 Melinda Martin: Kirsti - is there a specific CTCLink indicator for campuses

01:03:25 Melinda Martin: Student campus identification?

01:03:59 Kirsti Thomas (Seattle Colleges):   I think there must be, because IT was able to ID stuents enrolled at specific colleges

01:04:16 Melinda Martin: We are hoping to add that to our patron load in the future, but will have to retool the jobs

01:06:54 Melinda Martin: Thanks all!

01:06:56 Elena Bianco: Thanks, all!

01:06:58 Melinda Martin: Have a great day!

01:07:02 Jennifer Rohan: thank you

01:07:05 Stephanie: thanks!

01:07:11 CB - Aberdeen, WA: thanks

01:07:12 Lily Kun (SPSCC; she/her): thanks!
