

Come & See Day (May 1, 2026)

Love Jesus? Love kids? Interested in learning more about Christian, urban education, but not sure if it's for you? Come and see.

Come & See Day is a one day experience to jump into Christian schools on the North side of Milwaukee with peers experiencing some of the same interests and desires. It's a chance to get to see what our schools look like, while also hearing about the bigger picture landscape of education in Milwaukee.

Interested? Apply here. Applications are due by April 18.

Candidates: Effective candidates are faith-filled individuals who are curious about a future in urban education in Milwaukee. They are passionate about Jesus and His children. They are interested in growing in fellowship with strong schools, connecting with experienced Christian leaders, and building relationships with other driven disciples considering the education field.

Purpose: Provide an immersive introduction to St. Marcus life, mission, and community. By experiencing our schools and hearing from team members, participants will build connections as well as get a clearer sense of some of the challenges and opportunities in Christian urban education.
