PERSONALITY & QUIRKS

PERSONALITY

Known by her peers for her flirtatious attitude, Agnes Valdez is often portrayed as a snarky and hollow woman, typically using her way of words to get where she needs to go. She can often be seen along the sides of the dirt roads with her trusted cat companion in tow, almost always trying to spark a cheap deal with whomever may give her the time of day. Her persistent attitude and intimidating demeanour often plays an important role in her sales; usually ending in her benefit.

Being an untrustworthy and flirtatious businesswoman aside, Agnes still has some respectable traits, such as her welcoming and accepting attitude for all..! Regardless of whether you're an elf, dwarf, or feline, you're always welcome in Agnes' marvelous adventures across Enarion! Though, of course, this doesn't mean she'll drag around deadweight. To join Agnes, one must first have a dream, whatever it may be. As long as you're useful, ambitious and.. Somewhat tolerable, you're welcome to tag along!

That is, unless Duchess has a strange disdain for you.

Having grown up with her feline companion Duchess, Agnes trusts her more than anyone else in the region. She knows, and practically preaches, that her beloved cat friend would walk with her to the ends of the earth. Through thick and thin, Duchess would always be by her side, often serving as a shoulder to lean on during the harsher times.

She often jokes that cats' intuition knows best, but sometimes this is taken a little too literally.. If Duchess hisses or scratches at an acquaintance for some unclear reason, rest assured they'll be pushed to the side and left behind.

QUIRKS

[Anxious] → When anxious or uncomfortable, Agnes will repeatedly glance to her left side.

[Bored] → Sometimes unknowingly, Agnes will often tap her nails melodically against any nearby flat surface.

SKILLS

SEAMSTRESSING

Having grown up in a home that preaches the art of stitching and fabrics, Agnes has come to love embroidery and seamstressing. She often sews her own clothing, using various expensive fabrics desired across Enarion by many. On occasion, she may sew together some spare squares of thick fabric into quilts, later donating them to the armies and families across all Kingdoms.

Though, on special occasions, such as the day before a ball, she may also sell her beloved dresses for a cheaper price.. But, of course, only to those she knows who're unforunate with silver and gold, believing that everyone should have the luxury of dressing in fine cloth for such a joyous time!

ABNORMALITIES

CLIPPED EARS

For some unknown reason, Agnes was born with clipped ears, possibly as a result of being the child to the parents of a human and elf. Luckily for her, this is common and not harmful in any way!

COLORBLIND

[im colorblind lol]

Agnes was born with Protanopia, a form of colorblindness, and as a result can't see the majority of colors.

APPEARANCE

GENERAL APPEARANCE

Agnes is the type of woman others love to hate.

Her high cheekbones and soft, pale rosy lips that curved upwards into a gentle smile or smirk were enough to make someone melt. She was naturally beautiful, and it was painfully evident she was aware just by her slow and confident saunter into every room. Her skin is ebony with a healthy glow, which seems to nicely contrast with her warm chestnut brown locks that cascade just above the waist. Although arguably, her eyes were the most fascinating thing about her; alluring and a deep olive green, decorated with various hues of black, blue, and hazel specs.
